

Request to Restore the Theatrical Cuts of the Original Star Wars Trilogy for Blu-ray

Mr. Lucas,

Star Wars is a cultural icon that permanently changed the landscape of cinema, both in the US and abroad. It has earned its place not only in film history, but in the home video library of any film fan.

There has been much debate regarding the digital enhancements made to the original Star Wars films, beginning in 1997 with the release of the Special Edition. The debate was reignited in 2004 with the release of the DVD box set and culminated with the release of the 2006 limited edition DVDs, which contained substandard transfers from 1993 as bonus material. The purpose of this petition is not to debate copyright holders' rights; legally, you have every right to make alterations to your films. We do believe, however, that as the steward of one of the most recognizable and beloved film series of all time, you have a responsibility to restore and preserve Star Wars in its original form, unaltered, and make it accessible to fans in a quality equal to that of the Special Edition.

Speculation runs rampant as to the availability of suitable elements for a proper restoration of the theatrical cuts of the original trilogy. It has been suggested by your organization that the original negatives were permanently altered in order to create the Special Edition, making a complete restoration of the theatrical cuts impossible. The deliberate destruction of the original elements demonstrates such disrespect for film history that many of us find it hard to believe, given your firm stance in the past on film preservation. We hold out hope that claims of the negative's demise have been exaggerated.

Assuming adequate source materials do exist, our goal is to convince you that providing home video releases of the original theatrical cuts and the Special Editions in the best quality possible need not be an either/or proposition. Both versions can coexist without one detracting from the other. Ridley Scott supervised a definitive release of Blade Runner on Blu-ray with 4 distinct cuts that chronicle the evolution of the film over 3 decades, and all versions are presented in high quality. Close Encounters of the Third Kind has 3 cuts on the Blu-ray release—all with the blessing of Steven Spielberg and all presented in the best quality possible.

Outstanding Blu-ray releases like those for Blade Runner and Close Encounters of the Third Kind prove there can be a balance among creators' rights, film preservation, and fan service. The original Star Wars trilogy deserves the same treatment.

To clarify our request:

- 1) We ask that the theatrical cuts of the original Star Wars trilogy be restored from the best elements available using modern methods and technology.
- 2) When you decide to release the Star Wars saga on Blu-ray or any future format, we ask that the theatrical cuts of the original trilogy, with high definition transfers struck from the newly restored elements, be included alongside your most recent version.

We thank you for giving us Star Wars, and for your attention in this matter.

Regards,

Sign the Petition

Required fields are marked in bold. You'll receive a confirmation e-mail to verify your signature. Verified signatures carry more weight, so please take the time to confirm your signature.

We can't fix mistakes once you've submitted your signature, so make sure that your information is correct before submitting.

First Name

Last Name

E-mail

Verify E-mail

Cosigner E-mail

If you're under 13 years old.

Verify Cosigner E-mail

City

State / Province

Country

Date of Birth

For COPPA compliance.

Comments

No HTML, we strip it out. And please, be civil.

I have read the originaltrilogy.com Terms of Service and Privacy Policy and agree to the terms therein. I understand that my name, state, country, and comments will appear publicly on the petition's signature list, and that any information I submit may be forwarded to employees or representatives of Lucasfilm LTD.

Submit Your Signature

868 Petition Signatures for the Restored Original Star Wars Trilogy On Blu-ray

Signatures 1 through 878 : December 10, 2009 thru January 2, 2010

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
1	Jay Sylvester	PA, USA	December 10, 2009
2	Ian West	CA, United States	December 10, 2009
3	Matthew Gaudet	MA, United States of America	December 10, 2009
4	John Stuart	Co Antrim, Northern Ireland	December 10, 2009	I saw the original unaltered versions of these films dozens of times in the cinema when I was a kid, it is ridiculous that now all these years later that they are unavailable in the highest quality to the public who made Mr. Lucas the multi-millionaire he is today.
5	Keith Bress	CT, United States	December 10, 2009
6	Stephen Reams	Tennessee, United States	December 10, 2009
7	Magnus Flodell	Västmanland, Sweden	December 10, 2009
8	Ian Winter	OR, United States	December 10, 2009
9	François Menu	-, France	December 10, 2009
10	Dénes Cselovszky	Pest megye, Hungary	December 10, 2009
11	FRANCOIS DANIEL	PICARDIE, FRANCE	December 10, 2009
12	Francois Lefevre	33000, France	December 10, 2009
13	Alexandre Philippe	CO, USA	December 10, 2009
14	Drew Stewart	IN, USA	December 10, 2009	Please, for future generations (and TVs), let us have the versions I grew up with so my kids can see what I thought was so special.
15	Angel Karderinis	Attica, Greece	December 10, 2009
16	adrian sayce	shropshire, united kingdom	December 10, 2009
17	Matt Goble	London, United Kingdom	December 10, 2009
18	Peter Morrison	Scotland, UK	December 10, 2009	I dearly hope that Lucasfilm takes this opportunity to restore it's previous good name for always striving to release the highest quality products possible. The much-loved, influential, pre-Special Edition Star Wars trilogy deserves nothing less than a fully-anamorphic release to your highest standards possible this time.
19	John Vinci	Ca, USA	December 10, 2009	I haven't seen a a decent copy of Star Wars since 1995, or since my Laser Disc player broke down. I would love to see the orignal version of these films in all their glory once more!
20	Jean-Michel Poirier	FR, France	December 10, 2009
21	Pierre-Alain Nicolet	CH, Switzerland	December 10, 2009
22	Frederic Lehman	Østfold, Norway	December 10, 2009
23	Leon Verschuren	Noord-Brabant, The Netherlands	December 10, 2009
24	Robert Fantino	Rhone Alpes, France	December 10, 2009	One day I'd like to show to my futur kid(s) the SAME movie I saw and loved. Thanks Mr Lucas.
25	Mark Johnson	Utah, United States	December 10, 2009
26	joey m	ca, usa	December 10, 2009
27	JO Broyles	NC, USA	December 10, 2009
28	Oscar Forsgren	Västergötland, Sweden	December 10, 2009
29	Andrew Boswell	NJ, USA	December 10, 2009	this isn't about which version of the OT is

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
29	Andrew Boswell	NJ, USA	December 10, 2009	this isn't about which version of the OT is better. This is about giving the fans the choice. The fans should be able to watch and own both versions of the OT with equal video and audio quality. Put the OOT on Bluray!
30	marc savary	Brussels, Belgium	December 10, 2009
31	David Rice	NC, USA	December 10, 2009
32	Barry Gavin	Co, Mayo, Ireland	December 10, 2009
33	Johan Hanson	n/a, Sweden	December 10, 2009
34	Adam Smith	Lancashire, England	December 10, 2009	We really want to Originals restored! The originals are part of many fans childhood and the special editions are just not the same. PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE Release the originals in anamorphic! and please restore the trilogy from our childhood which most of us have fond memories of!!!
35	Brian Combe	Scotland, United Kingdom	December 10, 2009	While I am signing this request for a best possible release of the original theatrical editions of the Original Star Wars trilogy on Blu-Ray. I still wish request the same degree of restoration for a DVD release as well. The current DVD release was very long coming and ultimately disappointing. The general quality control on the release of both the original theatrical versions and the special edition release undermined the trust in both Lucasfilm and 20th Century Fox of many people who purchased those sets. The Star Wars films are major cultural artifacts and should be presented in the best way possible. They have rightfully earned their place in cinema history and when the public want to pay money to purchase them they should be able to buy the highest quality presentation.
36	Doug Irving	MI, USA	December 10, 2009
37	Ben Payton	CO, USA	December 10, 2009	The theatrical cuts are a crucial part of history, regardless of what Lucas thinks.
38	Matthew Shumar	PA, 16803	December 10, 2009
39	Myles Willmott	South Yorkshire, England	December 10, 2009
40	David Bloom	CA, United States	December 10, 2009
41	Peter Verschuren	North Brabant, The Netherlands	December 10, 2009	Please, please, please me
42	Tibault Damman	Oost-Vlaanderen, Belgium	December 10, 2009
43	Frazer Lee	Greater London, UK	December 10, 2009
44	Scott Gordon	CA, USA	December 10, 2009	Films are a part of our cultural landscape and are a part of history. Please preserve this window in time so that future generations will know what was achieved in 1977.
45	Wade Wieser	NJ, usa	December 10, 2009	STAR WARS was my childhood. We just want to see it exactly as it was, in the best possible way.
46	Erik Paniccia	IL, United States	December 10, 2009	Ridley Scott did it with his marvelous "Blade Runner" 5-disc Blu-Ray. Even your friend Steven Spielberg did it with his equally amazing 3-disc "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" Blu-Ray. Please do it for us with the "Star Wars" trilogy.
47	Tim Sutton	AL, 35179	December 10, 2009
48	David Gunn	CA, USA	December 10, 2009
49	Spencer Draper	FL, USA	December 10, 2009	Star Wars changed my life and I would gladly appreciate the chance to go back and

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
49	Spencer Draper	FL, USA	December 10, 2009	Star Wars changed my life and I would gladly appreciate the chance to go back and experience it again in both the original forms and the 1997 Special Edition. Both of these exist in forms that are not technically acceptable today. For both I still use a VHS set. AS the petition states a Blade Runner-esque restored release would be incredible. A true "Definitive Collection" with restored versions of the original theatrical releases, the 1997 Special Edition Trilogy, and definitive versions. Thank you for your time.
50	Niall Hagan	VA, US	December 10, 2009	The Star Wars original trilogy is my favorite set of films and they deserve the same respect that other great classics get.
51	Shaun Brown	TN, United States	December 10, 2009
52	Dylan DeSimine	New Jersey, United States of America	December 10, 2009
53	Joseph DeMille	WI, USA	December 10, 2009
54	Mark Buerschaper	Ontario, Canada	December 10, 2009
55	Justin Kerns	CO, USA	December 10, 2009
56	Justin White	RI, United States	December 10, 2009
57	Matthew Kelly	NY, USA	December 11, 2009
58	Jacob McClure	MN, USA	December 11, 2009	Star Wars is an icon of pop culture that changed entertainment media, merchandising, and literally generations of people. It deserves to be historically preserved and archived in the highest quality. Fans WANT the original versions. Not to replace your definitive version, but to complement it! Who doesn't like to see early drafts of art or writing? It is an insight into the creative process. PLEASE do not let the versions first released to the public disappear into obscurity!
59	Paul Tomlinson	staffordshire, england	December 11, 2009
60	Kory Koester	MN, 56547	December 11, 2009	For me to purchase another release of the Original "Star Wars" Trilogy in home video format, the original unaltered editions must be included and properly restored. I believe there is no reason not to include a restored trilogy alongside a "Special Edition" release because, as stated, other directors have already done so with their respective films. Also, because of the Original "Star Wars" Trilogy's impact on both film and culture, I strongly believe not restoring the original films soon would be hugely irresponsible and, as a result, would deny future generations the opportunity of experiencing the films as others who saw them for the first time when the films were originally released. Thank you.
61	Marina Montes	WA, USA	December 11, 2009	Bring back the old Star Wars!
62	Peter Lopez	NY, USA	December 11, 2009	...or please don't cloud up the way of the preservationists who take up the challenge.
63	Michael Madaychik	FL, United States	December 11, 2009	The Definitive Collection was a state of the art laserdisc box set of the original Star Wars trilogy...in 1993, not 2009.
64	Richard Luciano	TX, United States of America	December 11, 2009
65	Michael Kaminski	Ontario, Canada	December 11, 2009
66	Cassandra Brown	TN, United States	December 11, 2009	PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE PLEASE!!!!
67	Alex Brunelle	PA, USA	December 11, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
68	Miel Roman	GA, United States	December 11, 2009	Good Luck!
69	Robert Kuntz	ND, USA	December 11, 2009	Thank you for giving us Star Wars! I completely understand the desire to rework something you weren't totally satisfied with, but also plead that you recognise the importance of the original theatrical cuts of these films (both to the fans and to film history)
70	john connor	arizona, usa	December 11, 2009	please mr. lucas give us fans what we so desperately want thank you
71	Frank Vallone	NJ, USA	December 11, 2009	Dear Mr. Lucas: Please show us fans some respect and give us the opportunity to view the "Star Wars" Trilogy as it was originally released. Remember: if it hadn't been for us fans, the films would never have been as successful as they ultimately became. I think that you owe us at least that much. Thank you.
72	John Schultes	TN, USA	December 11, 2009
73	Ola Magnusson	Västra Götaland, Sweden	December 11, 2009
74	Patrick Fontaine	Manitoba, Canada	December 11, 2009	I would like to see that happen. Thanks!
75	Wesley Senna	NC, USA	December 11, 2009
76	Matt Fitch	England, UK	December 11, 2009
77	Craig Ienti	NY, USA	December 11, 2009	I very much like the "new" version. Mentioning Blade Runner is a definite "plus" and IMHO, that should be the defining release.
78	Jari Juutilainen	Länsi-Suomi, Finland	December 11, 2009
79	Mira Hyvönen	Länsi-Suomi, Finland	December 11, 2009
80	Steven Di Maio	Herts, UK	December 11, 2009	Release it man!!
81	Peter Vanek	Slovakia, Slovakia	December 11, 2009
82	Stephen Caldwell	Wi, USA	December 11, 2009	Thank You
83	Geoff Burrows	Middlesex, England	December 11, 2009	Mr. Lucas, I admire your films greatly. Would you please consider releasing the theatrical versions on blu-ray (in their original color platettes) that we saw in cinemas and fell in love with as children?
84	Ming Pan	Ca, USA	December 11, 2009	I rather have Star Wars Revisited be released as the definitive editions of the Star Wars Trilogy.
85	karl Nicholson	England, UK	December 11, 2009
86	David Wilder	Alberta, Canada	December 11, 2009	I'd be happy having the original Laser disc quality releases without any "special edition" editing!
87	Anthony DiPaola	New Jersey, USA	December 11, 2009	Please, give the OOT the respect is so rightfully deserves on Blu-Ray. Also include the original mono track for the original 1977 theatrical version of A New Hope and please fix the lightsaber colors for the SEs.
88	Bret Lonsway	CA, USA	December 11, 2009	These three films (in all of their versions) are now historical documents and cultural icons, and should be treated as such.
89	Lee Ridgard	Derbyshire, England	December 11, 2009	If it is true that the Blu-ray releases re going to be archival we need to have the theatrical cut as well as the HD remastered version and all of the deleted scenes as well.
90	Teemu Kemppainen	---, Finland	December 11, 2009
91	Leland Bruneau	AB, Canada	December 11, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
92	Ryu Habasa	ON, Canada	December 11, 2009
93	Erin McGoldrick	MA, USA	December 11, 2009	"The force is strong with this one" -D. Vader
94	Darren Johnston	Newtownabbey, Northern Ireland	December 11, 2009	Mr Lucas life's to short , PLEASE release the Original Trilogy unaltered but with remastered picture quality. Please.
95	A Kunst	South Holland, The Netherlands	December 11, 2009	Although i am pretty satisfied with the dvds i own now (except for the blue hue and the ending of Episode 6) and have not seen the 'official original' or even the '97 version, i do have something to say. I would be pretty pissed off if i saw the original i saw as a kid, be transformed in something completely different. I can relate with people who experienced something like this. So please Lucasfilm / Mister Lucas, restore the original in a good quality, not in a quality like on the 2006 bonus dvd. Thank you.
96	Tom Rogers	NY, USA	December 11, 2009
97	Robe Pettigrew	Alberta, Canada	December 11, 2009	I'd be happy to buy copies of both released versions George, just let us remember what we saw in the theater as kids, be able to be seen and shown to our children as well. Thanks! Robe
98	Dan Hendrickson	AZ, United States	December 11, 2009	In a further addendum to the petition, I would ask that the theatrical films be released with authentic color timing and all original sound mixes, monaural, stereo, and most importantly the superior 70mm 6-channel versions.
99	Andrew Young	Oregon, United States	December 11, 2009
100	Nathaniel Adams	tel aviv, israel	December 11, 2009
101	Benjamin Jenkel	Wisconsin, USA	December 12, 2009
102	Joshua Kaufman	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	Sooner is better than later, George.
103	Joseph Caranci	Pennsylvania, United States	December 12, 2009
104	thomas schneider	fl, usa	December 12, 2009
105	Richard Lee	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	deleted scenes of Tatoonie from A New Hope would be awesome too.
106	Andrew Eisen	CA, United States	December 12, 2009	A DVD release of the original versions of these films would be most appreciated.
107	Aram Anthony	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	Mr. Lucas, Let me be clear: I have given you a lot of cash over the years. Yet your refusal to care for these films in the manner that they deserve is not only disrespectful of history, it's disrespectful of the hard work I performed in order to earn the money that I then spent on your films and DVDs. Inclusion of the unaltered original trilogy films in HI-DEF QUALITY is the ONLY way I will purchase the Blu-Ray versions of these films. If they're not included, I will spend my money elsewhere.
108	Earl Borah	OR, USA	December 12, 2009	I'm glad to have the originals on DVD, though I was disappointed somewhat at the quality of the transfer. While I appreciate many of the changes you made to the original theatrical releases of the original trilogy and would not ask you to abandon them, I do not intend to purchase ANY additional copies of Star Wars in any format unless the original theatrical versions are included in the highest quality available.
109	Jonathan Lack	Colorado, USA	December 12, 2009
110	Brian Depp	PA, USA	December 12, 2009
111	Constantine Nacc	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	Thank you for your consideration of this

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
111	Constantine Nasr	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	Thank you for your consideration of this request. I look forward to getting rid of my old VHS and laserdisc copies of some of my favorite films and seeing them in as close a way as I can remember to my childhood theatrical experiences.
112	mark Borrero	ca, usa	December 12, 2009
113	Jeremy Latour	MA, United States	December 12, 2009	Very well said. You could call it the "Archive Editions."
114	Sharif Mansour	OH, USA	December 12, 2009	Prefer new editions, still need unaltered trilogy. Please.
115	Robert Huckell	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	The original versions allow me to relive my childhood in a way the special editions cannot. It would mean a lot to me if the versions I prefer could be made available.
116	Brian Campus	Illinois, USA	December 12, 2009
117	Joey Rao	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009	Pretty please.
118	Darian Sahanaja	CA, United States	December 12, 2009
119	NICHOLAS OLMSTED	ONTARIO, CANADA	December 12, 2009
120	Don Millner	minnesota, usa	December 12, 2009	make an effort and please give us the way the original trilogy was
121	Alan French	MA, USA	December 12, 2009
122	Eddie Jaszek	CA, USA	December 12, 2009
123	Dennis Gonzalez	Nevada, USA	December 12, 2009	From the old videodiscs and Beta tapes to DVD, I've never stopped enjoying these films. A proper transfer of the trilogy on Blu-Ray would be great gift for film lovers everywhere.
124	Dan Revill	BC, Canada	December 12, 2009	I would love to see these preserved on Blu-ray - remastered and in anamorphic widescreen! That would make 2010 totally epic win!
125	Keith Stonefield	Hawaii, USA	December 12, 2009	It is with fond and vivid memories that I remember walking into my local Cinerama theater in 1977 when I was ten years old and being wowed by the first scene. I've never seen anything like that in a theater, much less anywhere else. Although I'm in my 40s now, I do not want to get too old without being able to view these Original Trilogy treasures on Blu-ray! I now want my son to be able to at least see what Dad saw (albeit not on the "big" screen but at least with the best picture and sound) that hooked him forever! Thank you!
126	Mark Tetreault	DE, 19901	December 12, 2009
127	Alex Kalb	CA, USA	December 12, 2009
128	Derek Bartholomaus	California, USA	December 12, 2009
129	Brian Gregory	MD, United States	December 12, 2009
130	Vince Butler	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	PLEASE OH PLEASE release the original trilogy (non-special edition) on Blu-ray without the quality control errors that plagued the previous DVD releases (mis-colored lightsabers, flipped surrounds during the trench run, etc). I'm sure everyone on this petition would be happy to pay a premium for a Blu-ray release that includes a high-quality version of the films along with the special edition, similar to the Blade Runner release or the E.T. DVD release from a few years ago.
131	Scott Perry	WA, United States	December 12, 2009	I'm a filmmaker. i appreciate director's cuts, but I like my Star Wars without CGI. I prefer not to buy anymore Star Wars transfers unless there's a care for the unaltered versions. Don't rewrite history George!

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
132	Brandon Berry	Virginia, U.S.A.	December 12, 2009
133	robert Danduran	CA, United States	December 12, 2009
134	Modje Taavon	CA, United States	December 12, 2009
135	Gabriel Miranda	California, United States	December 12, 2009
136	Mike Bauer	TX, USA	December 12, 2009
137	Michel Morand	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009
138	Greg Method	OH, USA	December 12, 2009	The original "Star Wars" trilogy is a cultural landmark. For twenty years they kept kids and adults imagining and entertained. Revising and updating one's work of art is fine to a point, but it shouldn't be done to replace or withdraw the entities everyone grew up on and pretend that they didn't exist. To use an example of another form of art, the entire Beatles catalog was recently remastered from the original elements, and they were released in both stereo and mono because they knew that many people enjoyed the more-primative sounding mono versions for what they were. The original cuts of the "Star Wars" films were the ones that made them endearing and historical, and they deserve to be treated and released with as much as given to the special editions...clean them up, remaster them in anamorphic widescreen, strike new digital prints. Let the fans decide which version they want to own on Blu-ray.
139	mike rudolf	la, usa	December 12, 2009
140	Mike Guyder	SC, USA	December 12, 2009	Mr. Lucas, This would be a nice bonus to have the unaltered '77,'80, & '83 versions on Blu. Along side the Prequels and Special Edition trilogies.
141	Travis Kline	MO, United States	December 12, 2009	As a lifelong fan of Star Wars it pains my to not be able to expose my children to the magical films that helped shape my childhood. Please preserve these wonderful films in their theatrical form so that my children and my children's children will know that Han shoots first!
142	sean murphy	or, united states	December 12, 2009
143	Charlotte Orban	New York, USA	December 12, 2009
144	Christopher Wills	Maryland, USA	December 12, 2009
145	Christopher Heer	IL, USA	December 12, 2009
146	Ralph Thomas	CT, USA	December 12, 2009	Some of my fondest memories from my childhood involve these films. I've passed Star Wars "fever" to my younger brother, and my children. Although I enjoy the Special Editions as well, some of the features removed or altered from the originals happen to be what I remember most from the films. Please give us the opportunity to see your masterpieces in their original glory. Thank you.
147	Lino Natola	BC, Canada	December 12, 2009	When I first watched The Star Wars Trilogy as a four year old, there was only one version, The Original Version. I want to be able to watch it at the highest quality.
148	James Waldie	MI, USA	December 12, 2009	Please bring the original form of star wars to blu-ray. Thank you.
149	John Rotan	NC, USA	December 12, 2009	...and ALSO they MUST be 16:9 enhanced for widescreen TVs!!!
150	Chris Austin	IN, USA	December 12, 2009
151	Richard Van Skiver	NY, USA	December 12, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
152	john mcfadden	Delaware, UNITED STATES	December 12, 2009	C'mon george ???! dont you need more money ??
153	Robert Merritt	WV, United States	December 12, 2009
154	Roy Spaude	AZ, US	December 12, 2009
155	Mark Rosenthal	CO, USA	December 12, 2009
156	Jorge Gonzalez	Nevada, USA	December 12, 2009
157	Mathieu Lalonde	Quebec, Canda	December 12, 2009	I love the new versions and even wish the cgi changes went even futher!! But that being said, I still want to be able to watch and admire the original versions for the groundbreaking cinema classics that they where upon their original release (and still are today)!
158	Raymond Hagy	Delaware, United States	December 12, 2009
159	Hamdi Abu-Zalaf	New South Wales, Australia	December 12, 2009	As much as I have been lenient towards every re-issue of the Star Wars films and (at times reluctantly) supportive of the prequel films and shows - it is essential to moviedom entirely, that the Original Trilogy be preserved and included on for the Blu-ray format in all of its restored HD glory. Vital for future generations to realise HOW Star Wars initially came to us in 1977 and beyond :-)
160	Alexander Goncharov	RU, Russia	December 12, 2009
161	Kelvin Cheng	Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia	December 12, 2009
162	Doug Cochrane	New Brunswick, Canada	December 12, 2009	The original trilogy on bluray would be great to own. I'd like to see lucasfilm create a seamless branching version with all versions of each film.
163	John Collins	AZ, USA	December 12, 2009
164	Henderick Lui	CA, United States	December 12, 2009
165	Tim Salmons	KY, United States	December 12, 2009
166	Matt Roberts	Michigan, United States	December 12, 2009
167	bill doyle	wa, usa	December 12, 2009
168	Barry Polin	TX, USA	December 12, 2009
169	Paul Veloz	California, USA	December 12, 2009	So say we all.
170	Carter Siddall	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009
171	Jason Black	North Carolina, United States	December 12, 2009	Please, when u decide to put Star Wars on blu-ray, put the original version on the disc as well as the special editions. Thanks
172	Benjamin Schempp	IA, United States	December 12, 2009
173	Damon Thrift	MN, USA	December 12, 2009	There is no reason why these aren't out on Blu ray yet and the original, unaltered EP 4-6 have never been released on DVD or Blu ray.
174	Daniel Buckley	NJ, USA	December 12, 2009	Bring back the original Star Wars. Not Episode IV A New Hope.
175	Nick Martin	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009	These films are a vital piece of motion picture history and must be preserved on the best format possible. They can easily co-exist with the revisions.
176	Paul Manzione	CT, USA	December 12, 2009	Don't make us hurt these cute little Ewok's we have in our basement Uncle George...your bankroll is telling you, give us the original versions in pristine blu-ray quality. Even you wore the Han Shoots First T-Shirt...mistakes can be corrected and all will be forgiven!
177	Leo Dean	NJ, USA	December 12, 2009	please do us justice,and release these original versions in blu ray.it would be nice since i have bought upteen versions on vhs,laserdisc 250.00 box set dvd's etc come on george do the right

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
176	Paul Manzione	CT, USA	December 12, 2009	Don't make us hurt these cute little Ewok's we have in our basement Uncle George...your bankroll is telling you, give us the original versions in pristine blu-ray quality. Even you wore the Han Shoots First T-Shirt...mistakes can be corrected and all will be forgiven!
177	Leo Dean	NJ, USA	December 12, 2009	please do us justice,and release these original versions in blu ray.it would be nice since i have bought upteen versions on vhs,laserdisc 250.00 box set,dvd's etc.come on george,do the right thing!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
178	Jonathan Krantz	IN, usa	December 12, 2009	I would like to see a Blu-Ray special of all versions of Star Wars films from the original to the the 2nd and third update for Blu-Ray and ALL VERSIONS should get the special treatment.
179	Aaron Bulger	WA, USA	December 12, 2009
180	Jeremy Humbert	Queensland, Australia	December 12, 2009
181	Matthew Silfies	Pennsylvania, USA	December 12, 2009	Release the Blu-Rays now! Original AND Special Editions, Thank You.
182	Ed Peters	CA, USA	December 12, 2009
183	Darryl Merrit	SA, Australia	December 12, 2009
184	Joshua Gray	CA, 95648	December 12, 2009	Please let me have the films I grow up with.
185	chris williamson	ri, usa	December 12, 2009
186	Isaac Escamilla	TX, USA	December 12, 2009	Please.
187	John Wielgosz	PA, USA	December 12, 2009
188	Paul Novak	Massachusetts, USA	December 12, 2009
189	Eric Teall	MI, USA	December 12, 2009	Seamless branching has been around for years, George. Use it!
190	Arthur Kemp	UT, USA	December 12, 2009
191	Michael Robinson	Ohio, USA	December 12, 2009	Star Wars was the first movie I ever saw in a theater and I want to preserve that experience in High Definition on Blu-ray.
192	Paul Cordingley	NSW, Australia	December 12, 2009	Very strongly agree with the mission of this petition. The original Star Wars movies are beloved by we, the public.
193	Paul Pratt	IL, United States	December 12, 2009
194	Mark Varbel	OR, USA	December 12, 2009	I remember watching Star Wars in the theater in 1977. Would like to see the originals on Blu-ray.
195	Pete Arroyo	New Jersey, United States	December 12, 2009
196	Matthew Thomas	NJ, USA	December 12, 2009
197	John Nacinovich	GA, USA	December 12, 2009	Please let this happen.
198	Jeffrey Maher	IL, USA	December 12, 2009	The petition says it all... All we are asking is for theatrical cuts of the original trilogy to be preserved and released in the best possible way so future generations can enjoy these movies the way we did when we first saw them.
199	Christopher Karabon	WI, United States	December 12, 2009
200	Thomas Beasley	Ca, USA	December 12, 2009
201	Joseph Putynkowski	CA, US	December 12, 2009
202	Justin Wrinn	Kanagawa, Japan	December 12, 2009	I personally prefer the special editions, but I would like the chance to watch the original theatrical versions as nostalgia for when I was a child and also to be able to properly compare the two versions. I think that because so many fans prefer the original theatrical versions, and that Star Wars wouldn't have come this far without the support of its, they should be given

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
202	Justin Wrinn	Kanagawa, Japan	December 12, 2009	I personally prefer the special editions, but I would like the chance to watch the original theatrical versions as nostalgia for when I was a child and also to be able to properly compare the two versions. I think that because so many fans prefer the original theatrical versions, and that Star Wars wouldn't have come this far without the support of its, they should be given the one thing they have been asking for for years.
203	Douglas Wisniski	NJ, USA	December 12, 2009
204	Brian Khouri	IL, 60062	December 12, 2009
205	Paul Martin	Michigan, USA	December 12, 2009
206	Ryan Pate	CA, United States	December 12, 2009
207	Joel Dawson	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009
208	John Gleim	MN, United States	December 12, 2009	For the sake of history and for all those at ILM who worked so hard, please release the original theatrical films on Blu-ray.
209	Raymond McLaughlin	MA., United States	December 12, 2009
210	Daniel Seery	NJ, USA	December 12, 2009	Not having HD versions of THE TRILOGY in their non Special Edition formats would be a sin! I actually loved the Prequels, but the Hayden Ghost was just LAME!
211	Craig Miskimon	MD, United States	December 12, 2009
212	Robby Peters	Michigan, USA	December 12, 2009
213	Matthew Delahunt	AE, USA	December 12, 2009	Thank you for your time and consideration, Mr. Lucas. Please reconsider the merit of this petition. Best wishes, Matthew L. Delahunt
214	hugh russell	wa, united states	December 12, 2009
215	David Gray	Utah, USA	December 12, 2009	Cannot wait for these to arrive on blu. Top of the list! Thanks
216	Brian Criscuola	TX, USA	December 12, 2009
217	jeff theisler	fl, usa	December 12, 2009
218	Shawn Trommeshauser	British Columbia, Canada	December 12, 2009	I love all three primary versions of the Trilogy. But I do feel the original version needs to be preserved for a few important reasons. -Historical documentation -Education on the evolution of film making and ILM -It would be profitable for Lucasfilm. The demand is obviously there. Thank you for your time.
219	chris ure	ca, USA	December 12, 2009
220	James Downey	IL, USA	December 12, 2009	Please George! Please release the unaltered original trilogy on blu-ray! We all love Star Wars and it the unaltered originals deserve proper presentation.
221	Derek Pearce	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009
222	Krishna Jaipersad	St. James, Trinidad & Tobago	December 12, 2009
223	Alfred Espudo	CA, USA	December 12, 2009
224	Brad Carlson	IN, USA	December 12, 2009
225	Jeremy Clements	IL, United States	December 12, 2009
226	Dennis Tamosan	Hawaii, United States	December 12, 2009
227	Zac Oldenburg	CA, US	December 12, 2009	Preferably as part of a saga collection!

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
227	Zac Oldenburg	CA, US	December 12, 2009	Preferably as part of a saga collection!
228	James Young	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	Please please please release the original version on Bluray. I am a filmmaker myself and the original version is my childhood film.
229	Matthew Timmerman	FL, USA	December 12, 2009
230	Casey Alford	BC, Canada	December 12, 2009
231	John Baker	IN, USA	December 12, 2009
232	Jeff Kumfer	California, USA	December 12, 2009
233	Nikolai Bohm	Gladsaxe, Denmark	December 12, 2009	Just make it happen
234	Jacob Smith	WI, USA	December 12, 2009
235	Gary Koltookian	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	I want the originals!!!
236	Michael Nguyen	CA, USA	December 12, 2009
237	matthew raggett	surrey, united kingdom	December 12, 2009
238	Deborah Shair	CA, United States	December 12, 2009
239	Giovanni Rizza	SR, Italy	December 12, 2009
240	Ed White	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009
241	Thomas Hunziker	ZH, Switzerland	December 12, 2009
242	Michael Gore	Buskerud, Norway	December 12, 2009
243	Mac Johnson	VA, USA	December 12, 2009	Do whatever you want to the films, as long as you also preserve the original versions in the highest possible quality.
244	Branko Vekic	F BiH, Bosnia & Herzegovina	December 12, 2009
245	Emre Cikinoglu	N/A, Turkey	December 12, 2009	I don't want to have a bad feeling about this... originals, please...
246	NARAYAN NAIK	GA, United States	December 12, 2009
247	Paul Webster	Cambridgeshire, United Kingdom	December 12, 2009
248	Mohammed Mehboob	Lancashire, England	December 12, 2009	Mr Lucas Since I was born in 1990 I have been more drawn to your Special Edition versions of the Star Wars trilogy and the prequel trilogy - and they were amazing. I think that the original versions should be fully re-mastered and be presented in the same aspect ratio as the newer edits. These can be looked back on and admired by film fans and historians in the future and it shows respect for the films when they were made. I agree that the definite versions are the new edits, but I still think that the old versions should be showcased. A lot of people, including yourself, had worked so hard to get them completed for the years that they were released in and they are the crowning jewels of the decades that they were a part of - the 70s and 80s. Thank You Sir
249	Andrew Edmonds	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009	I'm currently a grad student in Film Studies at the University of Edinburgh, and I was inspired to become a film scholar because of Star Wars.
250	Tim Comolli	Vermont, USA	December 12, 2009
251	Robert Pouria	NJ, USA	December 12, 2009
252	Traci Kluge	NY, 12542	December 12, 2009
253	Hanna Hudeczek	Zachodniopomorskie, Poland	December 12, 2009
254	Tim Houde	Ma, USA	December 12, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
255	Mike Zeifang	VA, United States of America	December 12, 2009	I would actually love to see the theatrical cuts of all six films made available in high quality.
256	Greg Nock	OH, USA	December 12, 2009
257	Lisa Alexander	MI, United States	December 12, 2009
258	J. Doc DePrima	Ca, USA	December 12, 2009	Star Wars changed my view of the Sci-Fi movies forever! Please let me have a Blu-ray version of my greatest movie memory. Thank You for your time, Doc DePrima
259	Matthew Parker	Ohio, USA	December 12, 2009
260	phil box	notts, england	December 12, 2009	star wars was the first film i ever saw at a cinema, its a part of me now. mr. lucas, please consider what is being asked here. thank you, phil.
261	John Standing	New York, USA	December 12, 2009
262	David Raymore	WA, USA	December 12, 2009	I do hope that George Lucas will give us both the original and enhanced versions, so fans pick which one they want to watch. I am sure there is a lot stuff that has never been released to the public before, and perhaps that can be on the Blu-Ray editions. Please give the fans what they want because most people remember the originals more than the enhanced versions.
263	Jeff Miller	Iowa, USA	December 12, 2009	I want to see the movies I grew up with released on blu-ray!!!
264	John Lill	VA, USA	December 12, 2009
265	Christopher Wellins	NJ, US	December 12, 2009	1 Star Wars Trilogy on Blu Ray please!
266	Nicholas May	FL, United States	December 12, 2009	The only way I will buy them on blu-ray is if the originals are properly preserved.
267	Jason Fetterley	Minnesota, United States	December 12, 2009	Please don't disappoint the lifelong SW fans by leaving the original versions of these childhood favorites in standard definition!
268	Jason Worsell	Kent, Britain	December 12, 2009	I would love to see all the movies on blu-ray to be honest.
269	Robert Muratore	CO, United States	December 12, 2009
270	Terence Erickson	MD, USA	December 12, 2009	C'mon, son.
271	Chris Cook	ME, United States	December 12, 2009
272	John Spear	CT, country.us	December 12, 2009
273	Anthony King	VA., USA	December 12, 2009
274	Jack Ovoian	CA, USA	December 12, 2009
275	Dan Rothman	Manitoba, Canada	December 12, 2009
276	Chuck Lovelace	MO, USA	December 12, 2009
277	Thomas Beausoleil	CT, United States	December 12, 2009
278	Scott Weinrich	NE, USA	December 12, 2009
279	Jeremy Alexander	IL, United States	December 12, 2009	The originals are superior in every way!
280	Larry Johnson	CA, United States	December 12, 2009	Please!!!! While I'm still young enough to afford the home theater experience I now have and can enough the films fully.
281	Donald Gentry	Texas, United States	December 12, 2009
282	Alexander Li	MD, USA	December 12, 2009
283	Brian Cashion	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009
284	Chris Linke	FL, USA	December 12, 2009
285	Naoki Nomura	Saitama-ken, Japan	December 12, 2009	To best of my knowledge, Mr.Lucas had been preserving XCM Technicolor print which was

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
285	Naoki Nomura	Saitama-ken, Japan	December 12, 2009	To best of my knowledge, Mr. Lucas had been preserving YCM Technicolor print which was used for restoration in "Special Edition" back in 1997. I hope, at least, to see the theatrical version of Episode ? in blu-ray format.
286	Marc Barnwell	CO, USA	December 12, 2009
287	Christopher Cesarano	NJ, United States	December 12, 2009	Sometimes, it's just not worth it to see Han shoot first, or to see some retarded worm sticking out of the Sarlaac pit. Sometimes you just want it as you remember. And let's face it, it's not like you won't make money off of this. AGAIN.
288	Bill Bria	NY, USA	December 12, 2009	I would be eternally grateful to see the original trilogy again, in pristine condition.
289	Sean Lintner	Indiana, USA	December 12, 2009	Mr Lucas, as someone who has followed the birth of Blu-Ray I feel that consumers would purchase all of the Star Wars films. Just as DVD took off I feel Blu-Ray will take its place as the next standard. Thank you for all the great films! PS love The Clone Wars on Blu-Ray!!!!
290	Edwin Carpenter	Michigan, USA	December 12, 2009
291	Geoffrey Gibson	NJ, United States	December 12, 2009
292	Rodney Keller	Virginia, USA	December 12, 2009
293	Greg Taylor	IL, United States	December 12, 2009	Would buy this in a second. Great opportunity for sales by releasing box set of original, 1997 Special Edition, and new special edition all properly restored on blu ray.
294	Matt Dale	West Sussex, England	December 12, 2009
295	Christian Russo	New Jersey, United States of America	December 12, 2009
296	Mike Glader	MO, USA	December 12, 2009
297	Geoffrey Cassar	NY, United States	December 12, 2009	I would like to see the original unaltered and the special edition via seamless branching in one package one time purchase on blu-ray.
298	Raphael Rau	London, England	December 12, 2009	Firstly could we have a new transfer for all three original films on the blu rays. Secondly could all the special features from the dvds be ported over and thirdly could we please have new special features made specifically for the blu ray discs. Thanks.
299	Jacob Neumann	TX, USA	December 12, 2009
300	Ryan Ridgway	VA, USA	December 12, 2009	Please listen to the fans Sir. We all look forward to watching Star Wars on Blu-ray.
301	Kevin Brearey	PA, U.S.A.	December 12, 2009
302	Saul Lockerby	MN, USA	December 12, 2009	Star Wars is a part of our culture. Although our culture is continually changing, it's history should not. I applaud the effort to improve the Star Wars universe as new technology is available, but just because something new comes along does not mean we should throw away how we got there. Please allow us to not only see the original and new versions of ALL of the Star Wars movies, but all the steps in between so we can have a full appreciation of the journey from star to finish.
303	Travis Cook	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	The original theatrical cuts should be put on Blu-Ray for the fans. I support the other versions of the films as well...but the originals are something truly special.
304	Michael Laird	AL, USA	December 12, 2009
305	Mark Larson	FL 32714	December 12, 2009	I just want George Lucas to respect us fans that

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
305	Mark Larson	FL, 32714	December 12, 2009	I just want George Lucas to respect us fans that have lined his pockets for the past 30+ years by giving us both his edited version and the original version in HD and remastered to the quality that HD brings. That is all...otherwise I will refuse to buy another version of the films on any format!
306	Matthew Fuller	Idaho, United States	December 12, 2009	The iconic movies of Star Wars could set a new benchmark in the future of Blu Ray High Definition movie releases. Please release these movies Mr. Lucas! :D
307	Elise McGrath	AZ, USA	December 12, 2009
308	Ralf Hopf	NRW, Germany	December 12, 2009	The three movies in it's original theatrical releaseversion are landmarks and have it's place in filmhistory! Therefore they should be available in this version for good! Thank You!
309	Edward Bardo	Arizona, USA	December 12, 2009	1080p HD illegal versions of these films are easy to come by. Let's make this legal and mastered as per the studio
310	Jonathan Dorson	or, usa	December 12, 2009	Let the madness begin!
311	Jeremy Adamson	WY, United States	December 12, 2009	Please come out with these on blu-ray. I want to share these in the best quality with my children. Thank you.
312	Marcus Richmond	Wisconsin, United States of America	December 12, 2009
313	Ronald Petrucci	MA, United States	December 12, 2009
314	James Owen	KY, USA	December 12, 2009
315	Youssef Kdiry	NJ, USA	December 12, 2009	Mr. Lucas: Please give us a treasured portion of our childhood back. Release the original STAR WARS Trilogy in crisp form of blu-ray! Thank you!
316	Dudley Morris	Ga, USA	December 12, 2009
317	Scott Chapman	MI, United States	December 12, 2009	Please make the original versions available on Blu-Ray.
318	Christopher Wilbur	Maryland, USA	December 12, 2009	I think it would be ideal for all the versions of the original trilogy be restored: the original theatrical versions, the 1997 versions, and the 2004 versions. Thank you for your time.
319	Matt Corbett	VA, USA	December 12, 2009
320	Hansen Li	CA, United States	December 12, 2009
321	Matthew Atanian	Massachusetts, United States of America	December 12, 2009
322	James Holt	TN, USA	December 12, 2009	Please put my favorite trilogy, Star Wars IV, V & VI on Blu-Ray.
323	Scott Samons	IL, USA	December 12, 2009	Please allow these historic films to be presented in the best possible way, they were a big part of my childhood and I would like to pass them on to my son. thank you
324	Brad Cook	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	Mr. Lucas: I believe it's vital to preserve film history, especially movies like yours. Many other films have been made available in different versions (look at the Blade Runner release, for example), so please consider doing the same when the original Star Wars trilogy comes to Blu-ray. Thank you. I'll never forget being 7 years old and seeing and hearing that Star Destroyer rumble across the screen for the first time. I know I'm not alone.

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
324	Brad Cook	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	Mr. Lucas: I believe it's vital to preserve film history, especially movies like yours. Many other films have been made available in different versions (look at the Blade Runner release, for example), so please consider doing the same when the original Star Wars trilogy comes to Blu-ray. Thank you. I'll never forget being 7 years old and seeing and hearing that Star Destroyer rumble across the screen for the first time. I know I'm not alone. Sincerely, Brad Cook
325	Eli Dirx	Antwerp, Belgium	December 12, 2009	If it isn't done, then I do not blame the petition. However, it would be a great thing to have both a Special Edition and an original theatrical cut in approximately the same high quality. Such stuff is great to compare.
326	Michael Pennett	NV, USA	December 12, 2009
327	Jim Simpson	NY, USA	December 12, 2009	The originals in all their original glory, please!!!!
328	Hector Martinez	Wisconsin, USA	December 12, 2009
329	david c thompson	georgia, usa	December 12, 2009
330	Manuel Prieto	MN, US	December 12, 2009
331	Jeff Victor	CA, USA	December 12, 2009	Amen Brother. Amen.
332	Jeremy Fite	AL, USA	December 12, 2009
333	Hutson Hayward	CA, United States	December 12, 2009
334	David Stagl	GA, USA	December 12, 2009
335	rick antel	pa, usa	December 12, 2009
336	Marshall Yelverton	Ca, United States	December 12, 2009
337	Fernando Rendon	Guayas, Ecuador	December 12, 2009
338	Justin Rankin	CA, United States of America	December 12, 2009
339	Chris Ballance	BC, Canada	December 12, 2009	Blade Runner has set the standard for the presentation of multiple versions of a movie on Blu-Ray.
340	Sean Diroff	MI, USA	December 12, 2009
341	Thomas Leone	NY, United States	December 12, 2009	I am a Star Wars fan, and I would definitely like it if these versions are released on Blu-ray, fully restored and remastered. Though I don't mind the new edits done on this trilogy, I did grow up with the original version. Give all fans what we deserve.
342	Omar Leonard	FL, United States	December 12, 2009
343	Ed Demarco	NY, United States	December 12, 2009	I would like the original versions of Star Wars to be presented on Blu-ray.
344	Mark Stewart	Kincardineshire, United Kingdom	December 12, 2009
345	Kelly Propps	AR, United States	December 12, 2009
346	Douglas McCurry	SC, United States	December 12, 2009
347	Demetrios Patsiaris	IL, U.S.A	December 12, 2009
348	Todd Killinger	NY, USA	December 12, 2009	C'mon, Uncle George, let us have our (original) childhood memories in glorious hi-def!
349	jonathan osborn	jersey, channel islands	December 12, 2009
350	Craig Mitton	Ontario, Canada	December 12, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
351	Ryan Nelson	UT, USA	December 12, 2009	Star Wars has the most loyal fans on earth, yet Lucasfilm continues to take advantage of their fanbase. The time has passed to release these films. Give the fans what they really want, not some stripped down version that will force us to double-dip later on. This applies to the original Indy trilogy as well. Thank you.
352	Ronnie Highnote	VA, United States	December 12, 2009	Please issue a copy of the original trilogy on blu ray preserving the original movie the way that I saw them in the theater way back when. Those movies in their original form are why I've become the movie fan that I am today. Those movies are what hooked me on the theater experience for life. Now I want to relive that with my kids in my own dedicated theater room, with picture quality that is second to none.
353	HJ van de Sande	Tatooine, Star Wars Universe	December 12, 2009	May The Force be with you guys!!!! STAR WARS belongs on High Definition, it was made for the format even before it existed.
354	James Palumbo	NY, USA	December 12, 2009
355	Ioren Greenblatt	IL, USA	December 12, 2009
356	Christopher Sullivan	New York, USA	December 12, 2009
357	Andrew Cohen	CA, United States	December 12, 2009	I will not ever buy a Blu-Ray of Star Wars, Empire or Jedi, if it isn't/doesn't contain the original unaltered version in an anamorphic Full-HD version.
358	Aditya Sood	CA, United States	December 13, 2009
359	Brian Crewe	CA, USA	December 13, 2009
360	Bobby Giguere	MA, United States	December 13, 2009	I just want Star Wars on BLU-RAY! Would love a Both versions, if possible..
361	Jerry Diaz	New York, USA	December 13, 2009	Mr. Lucas, You have every right to do what you wish with your property. But please do not forgo those like myself that have grown up with the magic and wonder that the original theatrical Star Wars trilogy has provided. To own this collection in the most pristine visual and audio presentation of the most influential movies of all time would be phenomenal.
362	Matthew Wilkerson	WA, USA	December 13, 2009
363	Matt Ryan	CA, United States	December 13, 2009
364	Elizabeth Rosas-Diaz	New York, USA	December 13, 2009
365	Matthew Spencer	mi., u.s.a.	December 13, 2009	these original cuts represent a large chunk of my childhood memories. please give them back to me.
366	Jan Petersen	Kirchhellen, Germany	December 13, 2009	Please restore the Original Version of the Classic Star Wars Trilogy for a proper Blu-ray Release along with the Special Edition Versions! Thank You!
367	Justin Messere	NJ, USA	December 13, 2009
368	Erik Chudy	NV, USA	December 13, 2009
369	Ray DePerine	California, USA	December 13, 2009	Anamorphic video, multiple lossless audio tracks including 2 channel stereo, do not use DNR or EE on video, use correct audio for back channels (they are reversed on SE DVDs), do not correct any errors except lightsabers and boxes around tie-fighters, everything else should match the theatrical versions.
370	Scott Watson	Ohio, United States	December 13, 2009
371	Steven Clankie	TN, USA	December 13, 2009
372	Erik Chapin	WA, USA	December 13, 2009	Mr. Lucas, without the original theatrical versions of the Star Wars trilogy, you wouldn't

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
372	Erik Chapin	WA, USA	December 13, 2009	Mr. Lucas, without the original theatrical versions of the Star Wars trilogy, you wouldn't have been able to build your very own empire and would not have had the influence on so much of cinema today. I think it a shame that you've shelved them in favor of versions that make you feel more satisfied. Your comrade, Mr. Spielberg was kind enough to release all three versions of Close Encounters on Blu-ray, to allow us the fans to see it's transformation over time and to choose which version we prefer. Don't you think it's time that Star Wars get the same respect? I know they're your babies, but they're ours too.
373	Michael Wishart	NSW, Australia	December 13, 2009
374	Brian Jacobson	Iowa, USA	December 13, 2009	it;s not just the fans that a restoration of the Unaltered trilogy would respect.
375	Clator Butler	VA, USA	December 13, 2009	In addition, please consider the inclusion of all historical documentaries, plus whatever deleted material is available in a presentable form.
376	Bill Simone	TX, USA	December 13, 2009	While I love the special editions for the most part (Han shot first!!!!), The love I have for Star Wars started in May 1977 (yes, I was 4). It is the 1st memory I ever have, waiting in that huge line here in Dallas. We waited for 2 days!!! Please let me see the movie the way I saw it 32 years ago. Yours truly
377	Robert Pester, Jr	TX, USA	December 13, 2009
378	Michael Mathews	Florida, USA	December 13, 2009	I will purchase BOTH versions of the original trilogy the moment they're released on Blu-ray! Yes, I mean both versions: Han shooting first and second! :) And if the Christmas Special were added as an Ultimate Collection of some sort I'd have a geekgasm! ;)
379	Robert Lemieux	NH, USA	December 13, 2009	Probably won't happen, but worth a shot
380	Tom McGowan	NH, USA	December 13, 2009	Release it.
381	Drew Collins	TN, United States	December 13, 2009
382	Paul Karpey	CT, United States	December 13, 2009
383	Karl Kern	Colorado, USA	December 13, 2009	I want all versions on Blu-ray after another major re-release in theaters, this time in DLP format. Also, please release the complete ORIGINAL 2-LP score to THE EMPIRE STRIKES BACK on one CD. That has never been released to CD in that form, only the awful selected cuts CD.
384	Chien Wei	TX, USA	December 13, 2009
385	Matthew Bates	Colorado, USA	December 13, 2009	Bring Star Wars to Blu-ray, theatrical cuts, special edition and prequels.
386	Robert Sherman	Alabama, United States	December 13, 2009	Please release the original trilogy ASAP! Thank you for 32 wonderful years of Star Wars!
387	Kjetil Karolius	Troms, Norway	December 13, 2009
388	Frank Schalk	CA, USA	December 13, 2009	aww hell, just release the original trilogy on Blu-Ray already!
389	Andrew Johnson	IL, USA	December 13, 2009
390	Dave Conklin	NY, USA	December 13, 2009
391	Tim Lapetino	IL, United States	December 13, 2009	If George Lucas wants to release his Special Edition versions of the films as the "definitive" ones, so be it. But for the love of the original, groundbreaking films (and for film history's sake), it is important that these theatrical releases be restored, remastered, and released

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
391	Tim Lapetino	IL, United States	December 13, 2009	If George Lucas wants to release his Special Edition versions of the films as the "definitive" ones, so be it. But for the love of the original, groundbreaking films (and for film history's sake), it is important that these theatrical releases be restored, remastered and released on Blu-Ray.
392	Kevin Lund	TX, United States	December 13, 2009	Please Mr. Lucas, please. Restore my faith. Please.
393	J Fernando	ON, Canada	December 13, 2009
394	Gabriel Blanchard	CO, USA	December 13, 2009
395	William Elmore	Oklahoma, United States of America	December 13, 2009
396	Karl Leaning	., New Ealand	December 13, 2009
397	Greg Roach	VIC, Australia	December 13, 2009	Please Mr Lucas give us a breathtaking copy of the movies we all grew up watching and loving.
398	Al Collins	CA, usa	December 13, 2009
399	Petros Protopapas	--, Greece	December 13, 2009
400	Daniel Heger	Bavarian, Germany	December 13, 2009
401	John Berge	Oslo, Norway	December 13, 2009
402	Brandon Arriola	Texas, USA	December 13, 2009
403	Dominik Cholewa	Schleswig-Holstein, Germany	December 13, 2009
404	Lawrence Price	HI, USA	December 13, 2009
405	Justin Cawthorne	WA, Australia	December 13, 2009
406	Peter Halliwell	Dorset, United Kingdom	December 13, 2009
407	Gary Schirm II	NY, USA	December 13, 2009	YES - Theatrical versions along with Spec.Editions would be Great.
408	Carsten Bolk	NRW, Germany	December 13, 2009
409	Adolf Kunz	Bayern, Germany	December 13, 2009
410	Daniel Grothaus	NRW, Germany	December 13, 2009
411	Stefan Ixner	Sachsen, Germany	December 13, 2009
412	Tim Leupold	Sachsen-Anhalt, Deutschland	December 13, 2009	please, bring it back Schorsch ;)
413	Michael Göthe	NRW, Germany	December 13, 2009
414	Heidrun Wyborni	NRW, Germany	December 13, 2009
415	Hans Landa	Bayern, Germany	December 13, 2009
416	James McCullough	TX, United States	December 13, 2009
417	Scott Forte	MA, USA	December 13, 2009	Give fans the freedom to enjoy both the Special Editions and the original versions they love and remember!
418	Ben Monroe	T?ky?, Japan	December 13, 2009
419	James Dunn	VA, United States	December 13, 2009
420	Ivan Ofitserov	Moscow, Russian Federation	December 13, 2009
421	Ian Leighly	MN, United States	December 13, 2009
422	Joshua Edelglass	MA, USA	December 13, 2009
423	Jim Prillaman	TN, USA	December 13, 2009
424	Richard Pace	TX, United States	December 13, 2009
425	Ray Livingston	CA, USA	December 13, 2009	I have not purchased a Star Wars movie (VHS or DVD) since the original trilogy was "enhanced" and will not until the original version is released on DVD, and preferably Blu Ray. But what I would really like to see is a Super Set

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
425	Ray Livingston	CA, USA	December 13, 2009	I have not purchased a Star Wars movie (VHS or DVD) since the original trilogy was "enhanced" and will not until the original version is released on DVD, and preferably Blu Ray. But what I would really like to see is a Super Set including the Original Cuts, Digitally Enhanced Cuts (with fx cleaned up) and the Re-Released cuts from the mid-90s. Thanks.
426	Joseph Roselli	TN, USA	December 13, 2009	Please, Mr. Lucas, do the right thing and release the original 1977, 1980 & 1983 versions of these films in a clean 1080P form and shut us up forever.
427	Curt Marsh	MA, US	December 13, 2009
428	David Morgan	ON, Canada	December 13, 2009
429	Marc Moser	CA, USA	December 13, 2009	Words can not express how badly I want to see the original Trilogy in it's theatrical form make it to Blu Ray, just as Blade Runner has. I love all versions of Blade Runner, and really would love to have the same set up with Star Wars so I can view any particular version at any time.
430	Greg Piotrowski	pa, usa	December 13, 2009
431	Bill Chirrick	CA, USA	December 13, 2009
432	Ville Konttinen	Varsinaisuumi, Finland	December 13, 2009
433	Robert Jones	England, U.K.	December 13, 2009	The original theatrical versions of the Star Wars movies deserve to be preserved in the highest possible standard. A full restoration of the films presented on blu-ray is long overdue and a release containing all the alternate versions (from the 1977 mono mix of Star Wars and the 70mm cut of Empire Strikes Back to the 1997 Special Editions and the 2004 DVD versions) would be a fitting celebration of the Star Wars saga.
434	Dave Mueller	Pennsylvania, United States	December 13, 2009	The Special Editions can be considered the 'correct' versions of the films, but its not like 'Star Wars' was redone in 1981 after the fat money from 'Empire' started rolling in. Star Wars existed in its original form for twenty years. You can't just sweep that under the rug. While you might not have been 100% satisfied with the finished product at the time, that is the film that (in its original, unpolished form) inspired the imaginations of an entire world and changed filmmaking. It deserves to be archived as it was-if only for its place in the history of cinema. And don't worry: I'd buy both versions on Blu-ray.
435	Jukka Sorsa	Helsinki, Finland	December 13, 2009
436	Henrik Korsbaek	Koege, Denmark	December 13, 2009	And Please make a completely new Transfer. Do not use the previous Master made for 1993 Laserdiscs. If it's a problem to have Lowry Digital do it so ask Robert A. Harris As he did justice for Lawrence of Arabia - I am certain he will for the Original Trilogy as well
437	Carsten Behrendt	Sachsen-Anhalt, Germany	December 13, 2009	I bought the Original Version on VHS 13 years ago. But I think quality of the tapes will be weird soon.. I saw Star Wars IV-VI for the first time in the german TV SAT.1 in spring 1990 and thats the best version.
438	Franz Baum	Bavaria, Germany	December 13, 2009
439	Mark Holtz	CA, United States	December 13, 2009	Star Wars is one of those must-have titles in

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
439	Mark Holtz	CA, United States	December 13, 2009	Star Wars is one of those must-have titles in any good video library.
440	Nikolaus Geiler	Hessen, Germany	December 13, 2009
441	Juhana Hellanmaa	Keskimaa, Finland	December 13, 2009
442	David Dens	CA, USA	December 13, 2009
443	Jason Pavey	Hampshire, England	December 13, 2009
444	King Greenspon	PA, USA	December 13, 2009
445	Michael McMahan	CA, USA	December 13, 2009	The original theatrical versions have a consistency of effects work that I find more engrossing than the revisions. In short, I don't get pulled out of the stories. What could be more important than that? They are part of our cinematic cultural heritage.
446	Case Crum	Alabama, USA	December 13, 2009	While I love the updated versions, it would be nice to have the original theatrical ones for historical reasons.
447	Warren Besancon	IL, United States	December 13, 2009
448	Victor Santiago	Buenos Aires, Argentina	December 13, 2009
449	Tom Meseck	IA, United States	December 13, 2009	Thank You Again Mr. Lucas For All The Joy & Pleasure You Have Given Us As Fans... I Wish One Day I Will Be Able To Show My Young Daughter The Wonder & Amazement That I Experienced Seeing The Original Theatrical Movies That I Had Seen When I Was Her Age... Thanks Again For Your Time...
450	Chris Birdsall	Nebraska, USA	December 13, 2009
451	Kevin Knapp	CO, United States	December 14, 2009
452	Brian Sallot	PA, USA	December 14, 2009	Lets preserve film history and make the original versions available for all to enjoy.
453	William Bueche	CO, USA	December 14, 2009	I saw Star Wars eleven times in the theatre in 1977. That's the version I want to have on BluRay.
454	Paul Arnette	VA, United States of America	December 14, 2009
455	Louis Gamerman	MD, USA	December 14, 2009
456	Ryan Mackiewicz	OR, USA	December 14, 2009
457	Lawrence Gold	UT, USA	December 14, 2009
458	Ross Kärki	none, finland	December 14, 2009
459	Rich Allen	CA, usa	December 14, 2009
460	Peter Lunness	BC, Canada	December 14, 2009
461	Jason Budnek	TX, United States	December 14, 2009	I can understand your want to have gone back and expand on your original versions of the Trilogy to complete your original vision. This petition is just to let you know our original vision is what we saw for the first time in theaters. This is what we know and love and would much appreciate these versions in HD. Knowing most of us Star Wars fans, we will end up buying both the special editions and the originals. It would just be great to have both versions to compare and contrast. Thanks for giving us these great stories.
462	siddique hussain	west midlands, uk	December 14, 2009	Not only should all versions be available on the same HD set but also the oft promised film school on a disk. The films presented in raw unedited, blue screen version right through to adding all the layers in the making of the films.
463	clarence whitaker	wa, usa	December 14, 2009
464	Joseph Cole	VA, USA	December 14, 2009	I actually prefer the improved film versions but do understand the desire to see the 'originals' in

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
464	Joseph Cole	VA, USA	December 14, 2009	I actually prefer the improved film versions but do understand the desire to see the 'originals' in HiDef also. As a big fan of the franchise bring on all 6 as soon as possible!
465	Craig Davidson	New South Wales, Australia	December 14, 2009
466	Erik Schroeder	TX, USA	December 14, 2009	Please let me buy the movie I grew up loving. Thanks!
467	Priyatna Yoopie	East Jakarta, Indonesia	December 14, 2009
468	Kyle Dickinson	IL, United States	December 14, 2009
469	Eric Long	CA, USA	December 14, 2009
470	Patrick Little	TN, USA	December 14, 2009	My earliest memory is of seeing the original version of Star Wars in the theater. The original versions remain the only versions of the original trilogy that I enjoy watching, and would love to have a HD transfer of those versions available on BluRay.
471	David Moore	KY, USA	December 14, 2009
472	Rob Simon	WI, USA	December 14, 2009
473	Duane Despain	MT, usa	December 14, 2009
474	Kasey Williams	OH, USA	December 14, 2009
475	Ryan van Barneveld	ON, Canada	December 14, 2009
476	Craig Kocher	PA, USA	December 14, 2009
477	Brian V	MA, USA	December 14, 2009	Despite the Special Editions being the Original Trilogy for most of my life, the first time I saw Star Wars was on a recorded-from-tv tape my parents had recorded of the original versions of the trilogy. They hold a special place in my heart, and deserve respect for setting up everything Lucasfilm is today. Don't have the original versions be "bonus features", feature them right alongside the Special Editions in brilliant anamorphic high-definition quality.
478	Joey Di Girolamo	FL, United States	December 14, 2009	I'd like both versions of the films made available on blu-ray. And while we're at it, release the "Star Wars Holiday Special." Have a sense of humor about it, George! Do a scathing audio commentary, or hire the MST3K guys to do a riff!
479	Ivan Man	IL, United States	December 14, 2009
480	Martin Ortells	FL, USA	December 14, 2009	Please do and many, many thanks.
481	John Feeser	IN, USA	December 14, 2009
482	David Jones	HI, USA	December 14, 2009
483	Robert Beardsley	London, United Kingdom	December 14, 2009	Let's have both theatrical and extended editions of the prequels as well please
484	Thomas Byskov	N, Denmark	December 14, 2009
485	Adam Woodworth	Warwickshire, England	December 14, 2009
486	Douglas Rowe	Louisiana, USA	December 14, 2009	This should not even be up for debate. The original theatrical versions of the films should absolutely be preserved in the best possible format of today, and whatever audiovisual formats arise in the future. They are essential film history.
487	John Sheils	Dublin, Ireland	December 14, 2009
488	Christine Brearey	PA, USA	December 14, 2009
489	Florian Mueller	-, Austria	December 14, 2009
490	Sebastian Noll	NRW, Germany	December 14, 2009
491	TJ Young	MN, United States	December 14, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
492	Jason Guske	Indiana, united states	December 14, 2009
493	Blair Schildknecht	Ontario, Canada	December 14, 2009
494	Chad Wilson	Indiana, USA	December 14, 2009
495	Paul Seward	VA, USA	December 14, 2009
496	T.M. Knoke	KS, USA	December 14, 2009	Original, un-altered trilogy on Blu-ray, Dolby TrueHD 7.1, please! Re-mastered, 1080p (8K scan) please!
497	Sam Favate	NJ, USA	December 14, 2009
498	Mark Carter	Texas, USA	December 14, 2009	I have purchased EVERY single release of Star Wars on every vidoe format its been available, so I will also buy it on Blu-ray, once it is released. But, I would LOVE to be able to show my kids the Star Wars I was exposed to, back in 1977, in the best format possible. PLEASE release the originals.
499	Mark Zumkeller	IN, United States	December 14, 2009
500	Mark Cooper	OH, USA	December 14, 2009
501	Gregory Barre	Maine, USA	December 14, 2009	I would most definitely like to see the theatrical cuts of the original trilogy in High Def.
502	Gustavo Hinojosa	TX, USA	December 14, 2009
503	Brian Lintz	DE, USA	December 14, 2009
504	JOHN SEERY	NJ, 08753	December 14, 2009	I want to show my children the movies I grew up with. I was born in the summer of the original Star Wars release. And, having older siblings who showed me the films, Star Wars has been with me since birth. Empire Strikes Back was the first film I saw in the theater for my third birthday. Please keep the originals alive for the next generation.
505	Shane Walker	KS, USA	December 14, 2009	Please, Mr. Lucas/Lucasfilm LTD/Fox, do both film history and Star Wars fans the huge service of offering the original versions of the original Star Wars trilogy of films on Blu-ray. We want to share the experience with our children, AS we experienced in theaters and for the years we loved the originals in their non-altered forms. Like Casablanca, a nice renovation of a film classic goes a long way. Thank you.
506	Lawrence Morris	NJ, USA	December 14, 2009	Pretty please!
507	Carl Fink	Louisiana, United States	December 14, 2009	I have no interest whatsoever in, and will not purchase, any release of STAR WARS that does not include the original version of the film. I waited for the originals on DVD, and will do the same for Blu-ray.
508	robert reilly	ct, usa	December 14, 2009	original trilogy please! asap!
509	Eric Curtis	GA, USA	December 14, 2009
510	justin curtis	GA, USA	December 14, 2009
511	Mike Bermingham	IL, United States	December 14, 2009	HAN SHOT FIRST!
512	Chad Varnadore	NC, USA	December 14, 2009	Any film worth owning to enjoy over and over again, deserves the most faithful rendition possible. And, currently, ONLY Blu-ray can deliver that. Once you've seen 1080p, DVD makes the entire film less appealing.
513	Don Pennelli	GA, USA	December 14, 2009	From: "Bring my shuttle." To: "Inform the super-star destroyer of my arrival...." Are you kidding me? Less is more.
514	Curt Hohmann	Nordrhein-Westfalen,	December 14, 2009	/

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
515	Daren Strange	CA, USA	December 14, 2009	I'm actually really sick of Star Wars, but even I understand its purpose and status in film history - in its unaltered original form. How George Lucas doesn't seem to understand this perplexes me.
516	Kurt Hanover	MO, USA	December 14, 2009
517	Brian Kostuk	ON, Canada	December 14, 2009
518	Don Aehl	WI, USA	December 14, 2009	Do the right thing George! Preserve film history!
519	Kristina Pschorr	Bayern, Germany	December 14, 2009
520	Troy Blosser	Colorado, USA	December 14, 2009
521	Erik Morton	CA, United Stated	December 14, 2009	These are three of the greatest works of entertainment in motion picture history. They deserve to be seen on Blu-ray as they were originally released in theaters, and to deny them that would be to blatantly ignore a hugely significant chunk of cinematic history.
522	Gary Hinkel	BC, Canada	December 14, 2009
523	Andy Tye	Norfolk, United Kingdom	December 14, 2009	I absolutely love Star Wars and have for 32 years. I loved the originals, I adore the newest version, but please, please, please remove Hayden Christenson from the end of Return of the Jedi. His presence in place of Sebastian Shaw kills it for me. Oh and no amount of tinkering will improve on the original Han/Greedo confrontation. If you are to tinker further for the Blu Ray release, please take this into consideration. Thanks.
524	Joel Fontenot	Louisiana, USA	December 14, 2009
525	Stefan Wrobel	CA, USA	December 14, 2009	The original trilogy deserves a perfect blu-ray transfer!
526	Pablo Arriagada	Bío Bío, Chile	December 14, 2009
527	Gregory Kirkman	MI, USA	December 14, 2009	The STAR WARS films are among the most important and culturally relevant movies ever made, and they deserve to be preserved in their original form. It would be a crime against film history to see the films eventually fade away and be entirely supplanted by the revised versions.
528	Thomas Harris	Maryland, USA	December 14, 2009	The ORIGINAL theatrical cuts mastered in HD is the only way I'll consider buying these films yet again. Inclusion via seamless branching would be (a la Close Encounters) would be much appreciated.
529	Frank Moore	WA, USA	December 14, 2009	Give me back my childhood, George. I was there in 1977 - 1983 and bought all your toys, etc. It's not too much to ask that I be able to see Star Wars, Empire and Jedi in their ORIGINAL theatrical forms using today's latest visual technology. Thank you VERY much, Frank Vancouver, WA
530	Guy Hebert	Ontario, Canada	December 14, 2009	As others have mentioned, it would be nice if proper treatment was given to a future DVD release as well, since it is far from a dead medium.
531	Stephen Perry	texas, united states	December 14, 2009	i eagerly await the release of the star wars saga on blu ray. please do not skip this important format in favor of download or e-streamed release. thank you.
532	Andy Bryan	Ohio, U.S.A.	December 14, 2009	I want all the versions on blu-ray. Oh yeah

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
532	Andy Bryan	Ohio, U.S.A.	December 14, 2009	I want all the versions on blu-ray. Oh yeah baby!
533	Karsten Spreen	Niedersachsen, Germany	December 14, 2009	Please give us fans of the original trilogy the best possible version on Bluray. Thank you.
534	Jacob Martinez	CA, USA	December 14, 2009
535	David Espinoza	TX, USA	December 14, 2009
536	James Andrews	TX, USA	December 14, 2009
537	Tim Gross	CA, USA	December 14, 2009
538	Adam Sovic	Utah, USA	December 14, 2009
539	Robert Myall	Oxfordshire, United Kingdom	December 14, 2009
540	Troy Benge	IL, USA	December 14, 2009
541	ian forbes	CT, USA	December 14, 2009	Please?
542	Sterling Brown	Nevada, USA	December 14, 2009
543	David Hanner	Victoria, Australia	December 14, 2009
544	Christopher Avery	PA, USA	December 14, 2009
545	Philip Geiger	TX, USA	December 14, 2009
546	Steven Sanders	MS, 39443	December 14, 2009	We deserve to see the film from our childhood.
547	Blaine Williams	IN, United States	December 14, 2009	Blu-ray is the wave of the future, and it is happening right now!
548	Glenn Greenberg	NY, USA	December 14, 2009
549	henry suh	ca, u.s	December 14, 2009	i think this a great idea....
550	Timothy Waller	IL, USA	December 14, 2009	I would love to see the original Star Wars trilogy in 1080p with uncompressed surround sound.
551	Franklin Condori	FL, USA	December 14, 2009	Please, this is a part of my childhood that I feel I will no longer get to relive again other than from my private VHS collection.
552	Jonathan Feduccia	MS, United States	December 15, 2009	Please release the ORIGINAL theatrical versions from 1977, 1980 and 1983 of the Star Wars Trilogy EXACTLY AS WE FIRST VIEWED THEM BACK IN THOSE YEARS. This is very important to fans who have memories of our first experiences of these versions and would like them preserved on Blu-Ray.
553	Brian Burnham	RI, USA	December 15, 2009
554	Matt Frankenberg	MD, United States	December 15, 2009	I will not buy Star Wars on Blu-Ray unless this is done.
555	Eli Epstein	CA, USA	December 15, 2009	Thanks for doing this. I think all of the real fans want to watch exactly what we watched as kids in Blu-Ray quality. Keep up the fight! -E
556	Travis Black	California, United States of America	December 15, 2009	Please do not deny the loyal fans of the films a quality presentation of the original cut of the Star Wars trilogy. The old and new can co-exist on separate disc or even a single disc with seamless branching.
557	Ryan Hurtig	CO, USA	December 15, 2009
558	Jim Starr	MO, USA	December 15, 2009
559	Gleb Billig	Ontario, Conada	December 15, 2009
560	Griffin Talbott	KY, United States	December 15, 2009	Please, Mr. Lucas. The original trilogy exists only in the minds of original viewers. Please provide these versions so that I may enjoy them again with my children. Thank you.
561	Eric Lim	CA, USA	December 15, 2009
562	Stefan Willoughby	Victoria, Australia	December 15, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
562	Stefan Willoughby	Victoria, Australia	December 15, 2009
563	Luis Bartley	New Jersey, USA	December 15, 2009	Mr Lucas, It is time that you did right by all of us who have supported your films. Please release them on bluray. There is an overwhelming demand for these iconic films, so we are all eagerly awaiting news of their releases. Thank you in advance. Respectfully, Luis Bartley
564	Dyana Bartley	New Jersey, USA	December 15, 2009	Mr Lucas, I have purchased every incarnation of your films, and since I am a huge supporter of bluray, I would like to ask you to please release these monumentally important films on bluray. There is an overwhelmingly desire for these important films to be released. We have supported you, so now I ask that you believe in us. I thank you in advance. Respectfully, Dyana Bartley
565	Thomas Friedman	FL, USA	December 15, 2009	I believe it is essential that scholars such as myself (social sciences) have all versions to examine: differences in dialogue, new ideas of what is considered appropriate set dressing, scenery design and special effects so that we can begin to understand how the years have changed the nature of how film makers view their craft and how audiences react to same.
566	Keith Ealanta	VIC, Australia	December 15, 2009
567	leon dozier	california, usa	December 15, 2009	Dear Mr. Lucas: Will you please release all star wars films on blue-ray before 2011.The force is short for some of us.Thank you.
568	Scott Miller	CO, USA	December 15, 2009
569	Jamie Stroud	TX, USA	December 15, 2009
570	Patricio Jeria	Zuid-Holland, The Netherlands	December 15, 2009
571	Jeffry Heise	CA, USA	December 15, 2009	Lucas may own the films, but the fans OWN the films in their hearts-the original versions should not be buried. That's not right.
572	Stuart Crozier	Cornwall, UK	December 15, 2009	Dear Uncle George, At the end of the day ... we are offering you more money £$£$£$ Kind regards, One of the Original Star Wars kids.
573	Brian Johnson	California, United States of America	December 15, 2009	I have purchased the original (unedited) Star Wars trilogy on Laserdisc as three different sets. Please update my collection and allow me to retire my Laserdiscs with honor as I can then enjoy the original trilogy in glorious 1080p picture quality.
574	Robert Kowalewski II	Texas, 78664	December 15, 2009
575	Bryan Ramsdell	KY, United States	December 15, 2009	I really want them on Blu-ray soon.
576	Phillip Lynass	West Yorkshire, United Kingdom	December 15, 2009	I think it is very important to preserve the original theatrical cuts of these films and while it was great to get them on dvd a full restoration in 1080p and HD sound would be phenomenal. Thanks
577	Jerod Valleau	WV, USA	December 15, 2009	This would be great.
578	Lars Funke	NRW, Germany	December 15, 2009	Please take both editions on the disc.

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
578	Lars Funke	NRW, Germany	December 15, 2009	Please take both editions on the disc. The first one is the best.
579	John Sheley	IN, USA	December 15, 2009
580	Robert Whisenhunt	OK, United States of America	December 15, 2009
581	Rob LaVacca	ON, Canada	December 15, 2009	I don't need CGI in my Star Wars movies.
582	Bob Woods	Illinois, USA	December 15, 2009
583	Niklas Hansson	Norrbotten, Sweden	December 15, 2009
584	Nick Dutschke	KY, USA	December 15, 2009
585	Dominic Martin	Qc, Canada	December 15, 2009	Please !
586	Thomas Mitchell	UT, United States	December 15, 2009
587	paul Marconi	NY, United States	December 15, 2009
588	Donovon Bodine	TX, USA	December 15, 2009
589	Ken Davis	NC, USA	December 15, 2009	Please restore the theatrical cuts of the original Star Wars trilogy in HD picture and sound and include them on ANY Blu-Ray release of the Star Wars trilogy. Refusing to include the theatrical cuts would be an insult to generations of loyal Star Wars fans!
590	Ronnie Olsson	Skåne, Sweden	December 15, 2009
591	Ralph Santovenia	New York, United States of America	December 15, 2009	As good as the enhancements might be, I'd like to see the Trilogy as I first saw it in the theaters.
592	Dustin Navarro	California, USA	December 15, 2009
593	Marc Henshaw	Pennsylvania, USA	December 15, 2009
594	David Shreeve	Az, Unites States	December 15, 2009
595	Olivo Contreras	IL, USA	December 15, 2009
596	Robert Spelman	indiana, usa	December 15, 2009
597	Whitney Rothe	NY, USA	December 15, 2009
598	James Lemons	Va, USA	December 15, 2009
599	Ryan Dougherty	MA, United States	December 15, 2009
600	Byron Hayes	ID, U.S.A.	December 15, 2009	Please release these together and as soon as possible!!!
601	eddie kane	Lanarkshire, United Kingdom	December 15, 2009
602	Charles Cotrone	Ontario, Canada	December 15, 2009
603	Thomas Hughes	OR, USA	December 15, 2009
604	Greg Best	Iowa, USA	December 15, 2009	I will never buy the new edits on BLurRay
605	John Davignon	ME, USA	December 15, 2009
606	Mike Golla	NJ, USA	December 15, 2009
607	Ian Lichtenstein	NJ, 08648	December 15, 2009
608	Brian Harrigan	IL, USA	December 15, 2009	I will not buy any of the original trilogy unless it is the version first released into theaters.
609	Christen James	IL, USA	December 15, 2009
610	Benjamin Price	CA, USA	December 15, 2009
611	Sharon Price	CA, USA	December 15, 2009
612	Stephen Dedalus	NY, USA	December 15, 2009
613	Abraham Kailiponi	Utah, United States of America	December 15, 2009
614	Robert Lea	Ontario, Canada	December 15, 2009	We do need the films in Blu-Ray, and would appreciate both original versions and special editions. And of course the rumoured 3-D

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
614	Robert Lea	Ontario, Canada	December 15, 2009	We do need the films in Blu-Ray, and would appreciate both original versions and special editions. And of course the rumoured 3-D version. :)
615	Matt Martinez	CA, United States of America	December 15, 2009	The Star Wars films are possibly my favorite movies of all time, and I would very much love to watch the versions I grew up loving. While I agree that it is your right to alter your films in any way you see fit, I do ask that you please make the original versions available for those of us who were old enough to see them and grow attached to them. Thank you.
616	Gary Walters	Texas, USA	December 15, 2009
617	Jamison Stubbs	VA, USA	December 15, 2009
618	Jonathan Chapman	Cambridgeshire, UK	December 15, 2009	Star Wars deserves to be treated by modern technology to enhance the shortcomings of film technology at the time, but not to the extent that the content is manipulated. Digital enhancement in this case should be more about historical preservation and appreciation in film more than it is about improving a movie.
619	Chris Leland	IN, USA	December 15, 2009	I just want them on Blu-Ray!
620	Armin Maigler	Baden-Wuerttemberg, Germany	December 15, 2009
621	Christopher Kasinger	IN, US	December 15, 2009
622	Jeffrey Melton	PA, United States	December 15, 2009	Ever since Blu-ray was finalized as a format I have been waiting for a Star Wars HD release. I prefer the original theatrical releases to the Special Edition.
623	Tim Dahl	t, US	December 15, 2009	Would love a remastered blu ray release!
624	Warner Young	CA, USA	December 15, 2009
625	Jeff Peacock	Arizona, USA	December 15, 2009
626	John Vollhoffer	Saskatchewan, Canada	December 15, 2009	No offense, but George Lucas, as wonderful as he is, is and has ruined the most wonderful dynasty in film ever created by releasing the newer Star Wars films and animated series. Please do not allow him to further degrade these masterpieces by not releasing the original films to Blue Ray as they were when they first came out.
627	Frank Rojas	NC, USA	December 15, 2009
628	Mercier Simon	Rhone Alpes, France	December 15, 2009
629	Christian Crews	Florida, USA	December 15, 2009	You are now and always have been a film god. Please genuinely consider this petition and bestow the blessing that is the original trilogy upon us viewing masses as we worship at the Blue-ray altar.
630	John Miniello	NY, USA	December 15, 2009	A Blu-Ray box set of all the Star Wars films with all versions of each film in 1080p, would be awesome. I would buy that, and only that, if it came out. Any chance the Star Wars TV Holiday Special can be added as well? That does not have to be in high def. :-)
631	Eric Winebarger	Missouri, USA	December 15, 2009
632	Todd Harrison	Ontario, Canada	December 15, 2009	I fully support the campaign efforts by the fine folks at originaltrilogy.com BRING BACK THE ORIGINAL, UNALTERED STAR WARS TRILOGY and preserve it right beside the Special Edition. They both belong together inside a Blu Ray boxed set with as much behind the scenes material that Lucasfilm can squeeze

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
632	Todd Harrison	Ontario, Canada	December 15, 2009	I fully support the campaign efforts by the fine folks at originaltrilogy.com BRING BACK THE ORIGINAL, UNALTERED STAR WARS TRILOGY and preserve it right beside the Special Edition. They both belong together inside a Blu Ray boxed set with as much behind the scenes material that Lucasfilm can squeeze inside!
633	sam Beavis	berkshire, United Kingdom	December 15, 2009	Saw the "special edition" of Jedi on TV the other day and it just reminded me how I felt back in the cinema in 1997, hating every single one of the pathetic, redundant, senseless changes that were made to all three films. I'm too young to have ever seen the original films in the cinema. The closest I can get is to re-create that experience in my home. Please, please, please, will someone provide us with a definitive dvd to do this?!! I don't believe any of the technical excuses spouted by Lucas film. The only stumbling block I can see is stubbornness and a bizarre inability by Mr Lucas to seemingly understand why his own original creation worked so well. Don't worry about it George - trust us! use the force, make the fracking dvds, and pocket some more dollars! Everyone wins
634	Brian Greer	FL, USA	December 15, 2009
635	Tom Hall	TX, USA	December 15, 2009	Please please please George, for the love of the history of cinema. And talk to Stephen about ET. Kids do say bad words sometimes, and federal agents are armed.
636	Paul Villaverde	Arizona, USA	December 15, 2009	Do right by your fans George.
637	Carlton Fike	North Carolina, USA	December 15, 2009
638	Matt Aggen	IL, USA	December 15, 2009	I agree with the petitioners. I would LOVE to buy the original version of Star Wars on Blu-ray!
639	Stephen Escobar	CA, USA	December 15, 2009
640	Jeffrey Williams	Ohio, U.S.A.	December 15, 2009
641	Patricia Silverman	CA, 94555	December 15, 2009
642	Floyd McMichael	AK, United States	December 15, 2009	I want Star Wars in its original form, with modern clean up techniques. Han shot first.
643	sam jabr	Ohio, USA	December 15, 2009
644	Jeff Nixion	Nevada, USA	December 15, 2009
645	Tomislav Biskup	Hessia, Germany	December 15, 2009
646	Tim Cox	Ca, USA	December 15, 2009
647	James Orner	FL, USA	December 15, 2009
648	Rosey Thiess	Ca, USA	December 15, 2009
649	Albert Mescallado	ON, Canada	December 15, 2009
650	Sam Vastine	Arizona, U.S.A.	December 15, 2009	We've shown you our support for your films, Mr. Lucas, please show us some support in return. I want to be able to show my kids the restored original alongside the newest version. Thank you for giving me something so life-changing, something that's had more influence on my life than any other thing.
651	Nicholas holley	UT, United States	December 15, 2009
652	Ron Justice	WA, USA	December 15, 2009
653	Stephen Clawson	UT, USA	December 16, 2009
654	Matthew Nordman	FL, 32043	December 16, 2009
655	Christopher Bruce	CA, USA	December 16, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
656	Dan Hetrick	Michigan, U.S.A.	December 16, 2009
657	Mark Hauge	IL, USA	December 16, 2009	I have money over here ready for you. Just make it happen.
658	Patrick A. Johnson	Louisiana, USA	December 16, 2009
659	Harlow Akins	Ohio, USA	December 16, 2009
660	Terry Cooper	South Wales, United Kingdom	December 16, 2009	Star Wars, when I saw it in 1978, changed my life. Please preserve and release the original prints so it's influence can continue.
661	Jay Hajar	MO, USA	December 16, 2009	I won't be buying any release of episodes IV-VI that doesn't include the original version of the film. These are the films I stood in line for as a small child, not the altered ones.
662	Sarah McClure	MN, USA	December 16, 2009	The "bonus discs" don't exactly hold up on a big screen. Please restore these to their original glory!
663	John Wolinski	UT, USA	December 16, 2009
664	Patrick Cooley	la, usa	December 16, 2009
665	John Leonardy	PA, USA	December 16, 2009
666	Brett Dawson	Cantebury, New Zealand	December 16, 2009	Even though I never originally saw the OUT, I would love to see a fully remastered edition of the theatrical cut in an anomorphic display.
667	Joshua Beard	California, United States	December 16, 2009
668	Frank Heidemann	Nordrhein-Westfalen, Germany	December 16, 2009	It would be really great to get the Original Trilogy unaltered on BluRay-Disc...
669	David Bannister	AKL, New Zealand	December 16, 2009	My favourite movie as a child was Star Wars. I will never forget the awesome 4.2 dolby surround experience that shaped both my childhood and my appreciation of cinema from that moment on. Please release this movie and give me back a small part of one of my dearest childhood memories.
670	Robin Marlow	West Midlands, United Kingdom	December 16, 2009
671	Hasan Nadir Derin	Emek, Turkey	December 16, 2009
672	William Leslie	CA, USA	December 16, 2009
673	Travis Tokaruk	Saskatchewan, Canada	December 16, 2009
674	Shaun Neighbour	Kent, UK	December 16, 2009	I'll even pay for all 6 films on blu-ray if you can create this definitive Star Wars Blu-Ray release.
675	Marcin Gendera	Slaskie, Poland	December 16, 2009
676	Max Lamers	WI, United States	December 16, 2009
677	Todd West	CA, USA	December 16, 2009
678	Robert Roth	CA, 91506	December 16, 2009	Please? I love Star Wars in all its forms and I would dearly love to have the original, unaltered films in my collection.
679	Iain O'Donnell	Scotland, United Kingdom	December 16, 2009	It makes complete and perfect sense for films allocated such a prominent position in the medium's history, to actually BE available (which, in their original, initially incepted forms - that is, the condition which actually brought about such cultural preeminence - they are NOT). It was the primary, unaltered versions of the Star Wars films which allowed for the social absorption that has resulted in the enormous success of the Star Wars films and the wider franchise of Star Wars books, games, toys, TV shows, etc. Thus, through the non-release of these editions,

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
679	Iain O'Donnell	Scotland, United Kingdom	December 16, 2009	It makes complete and perfect sense for films allocated such a prominent position in the medium's history, to actually BE available (which, in their original, initially incepted forms - that is, the condition which actually brought about such cultural preeminence - they are NOT). It was the primary, unaltered versions of the Star Wars films which allowed for the social absorption that has resulted in the enormous success of the Star Wars films and the wider franchise of Star Wars books, games, toys, TV shows, etc. Thus, through the non-release of these editions, it seems that a great perversion has occurred, and an enormous disrespect has been made. I hope that this can be rectified.
680	Patrick Mallon	NY, USA	December 16, 2009
681	Stuart Lees	GLOS, UK	December 16, 2009
682	Steven Boone	NY, USA	December 16, 2009	The original trilogy is lovingly handcrafted popular movie art. The Special Editions are sheer vandalism-- and not the good kind, not graffiti or street art, just defacement, diminishment of the originals.
683	Ian Losby	AK, USA	December 16, 2009
684	Alex Worms	Alberta, Canada	December 16, 2009	I have been a big fan of the original Star Wars trilogy since I was 4 years old, when I saw Empire Strikes Back (the first of the three that I saw). These movies are beloved by many people. I enjoyed elements of the Special Edition, like the cleaned up special effects and the enhanced sound, but there were things that detracted from the movie, like making Greedo shoot first, having Han walk on Jabba, and having Hayden Christensen be Anakin redeemed. The first two things were basically changing characters (changing Han, to be less, well, scum-ish, and making Jabba someone that people can just walk all over, pun intended), but the third just bothered me a little. Thank you for listening to me rant!
685	brian emenaker	ohio, usa	December 16, 2009
686	Dammian Miller	Victoria, Australia	December 17, 2009
687	Peter Yee	CA, USA	December 17, 2009
688	Anthony Mangano	NY, United States	December 17, 2009	I love the original versions, and the newer DVD versions as well (well, I hate the "greedo" scene) It is possible to get the original trilogy restored, you have the elements and the technology! I would love to see (and hear) the exact same version I saw of Star Wars in 70mm in 1977 but in HD on Blu-Ray!
689	Drew Edwards	CA, USA	December 17, 2009
690	Jacob Madsen	Viby J., Denmark	December 17, 2009
691	Edward Burke	TX, USA	December 17, 2009
692	Stanley Evans	CA, USA	December 17, 2009
693	Elliot Reid	Victoria, Australia	December 17, 2009
694	RON BATCHELOR	NORTH CAROLINA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA BABY	December 17, 2009	PLEASE JUST RELEASE IT ON BLU-RAY. YOU R KILLING ME. U WILL MAKE PEOPLE BUY A PLAYER JUST TO SEE IT. BTB USE MA-HD 7.1 TRUE HD SUCKS AZZ.
695	Ross Tulloch	NSW, Australia	December 17, 2009
696	john izzarone	new york, USA	December 17, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
697	Boris Arendt	Hessen, Germany	December 17, 2009	And please Lucasfilm: This time without rush jobs like missing parts of spoken language as in the german bonus version of ANH in the 'Limited Edition'. And NO left/right flipped orchestral soundtrack on the rear channels, varying color-timings throughout the film, etc. I will only re-buy a technically flawless product!
698	Steve Maxson	IL, USA	December 17, 2009	HAN SHOT FIRST!!!
699	Noah Bronstein	New Hampshire, United States	December 17, 2009	Please consider this, Mr. Lucas. We admire your creativity, but it would be very nice to have an HD copy of the theatrical cuts.
700	Dennis Van der Vorst	Antwerpen, Belgium	December 17, 2009	Please release the theatrical cuts on DVD or BD and clean up the audio and video like you did with the 2004 DVD versions.
701	Chester Skapczynski	PA, USA	December 17, 2009	As one of the many fans who lined up to see the premiere WAY BACK WHEN (I think I was 13), I'd love to see the ORIGINAL theatrical release, where Vader did NOT straighten out his spin at the end.
702	Juuso Paakko	Uusimaa, Finland	December 17, 2009
703	Anthony Le	CA, USA	December 17, 2009
704	Barry Logan	Tyne&Wear, United Kingdom	December 17, 2009	Please do the best you possibly can.
705	Gareth Hanna	Co.Antrim, N.Ireland	December 17, 2009	Gareth Hanna
706	Shawn Morris	NJ, USA	December 17, 2009	This would make me adopt the BluRay format. Until then, I'll stick with DVD.
707	Jeff Malicki	WI, USA	December 17, 2009	I have no problem with your "Special Editions", but PLEASE include the original versions on the eventual Blu-Ray release. They are, after all, the versions of the film that made you famous and won the awards, not to mention the versions that we grew up with.
708	Joe Izzarone	New York, United states	December 17, 2009
709	Richard Kolinski	TN, United States	December 17, 2009
710	John Tissington	Flintshire, UK	December 17, 2009
711	Richard Knox	Alberta, Canada	December 17, 2009
712	John Berggren	NC, USA	December 17, 2009	I enjoy and appreciate the special editions, particularly the cloud city enhancements in Empire Strikes Back. However, I would be very sad to know that the original trilogy as theatrically presented in the 70's and 80's would not be available to me on blu-ray.
713	Scott Hickman	IN, USA	December 18, 2009
714	Eric Noble	Washington, United Staes of America	December 18, 2009	Please Mr. Lucas, give your fans the original trilogy as was seen back then. It's part of our collective culture.
715	Harry Hess	Kent, UK	December 18, 2009	Dear George - Please release the OT on Blu-ray.
716	Hugo Hemingway	England, UK	December 18, 2009	I can quite easily state that the original Star Wars Trilogy (and Indiana Jones to a slightly lesser extent) are easily my favourite films of all time (and baring in mind I have a collection nearing 500 BR's, I believe thats quite significant).
717	Mark Tucker	Middlesex, United Kingdom	December 18, 2009
718	RICHARD ARNOTT	ENGLAND, U.K.	December 18, 2009
719	Scott Thomson	Strathclyde, United Kingdom	December 18, 2009	Both versions via seamless branching please.
720	Herbert Roebuck	Queensland, Australia	December 18, 2009
721	Y MacDonald	BC, Canada	December 18, 2009	Why hasn't this been done already? In Lucas

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
721	X MacDonald	BC, Canada	December 18, 2009	Why hasn't this been done already? Is Lucas afraid that he will learn the truth? That the movies were better before he messed with them?
722	Reinhard Andriske	NRW, Germany	December 18, 2009	I grew up with Star Wars, and I liked it the way it was. I can't get along with the new versions and the prequel movies. They kinda destroyed a childhood's dream.
723	Michael Hart	CA, USA	December 18, 2009	The original Star Wars film and its two sequels were completely awesome and way ahead of their time. It was fun to see the changes in the special editions, but the changes seem to be mostly a distraction that don't really add anything to the story. The original Star Wars trilogy is a classic and it should be preserved. I only wish the new trilogy kept the same look and feel to it. Everything is too smooth and new looking and looks like a modern day video game. Thank you for completing them regardless! :-)
724	Michael Wassom	IL, United States	December 19, 2009
725	Jeremiah Scott	Oregon, USA	December 19, 2009	The original version of the Star Wars trilogy is a part of my childhood. I would love to relive it in HD on Blu-ray... rather than have the recut versions. That 'new' experience took away from Star Wars, it didn't add anything but frustration for me.
726	Ryan Brunton	CA, USA	December 19, 2009
727	Deidre Hansen	CA, USA	December 19, 2009
728	Kirk Shelton	MO, USA	December 19, 2009
729	Jay West	BC, Canada	December 19, 2009
730	Benjamin Ross	FL, 32726	December 19, 2009	No comment. I am a simple fan interesting in seeing the theatrical cuts in High Definition Blu-Ray.
731	Michael Parker	CA, USA	December 19, 2009	Last chance, Lucas.
732	Scott Helgeson	NY, USA	December 19, 2009
733	Dennis K.	Lower Saxony, Germany	December 19, 2009	I find it very sad that there is only the Special Edition (SE) from 2004 supposed to last. This causes much controversy among fans, especially between those who grew up with the unaltered version (like me) and mostly younger fans who like the SEs better. Therefore, I strongly support the proposal of providing all existing versions of the Original Trilogy (OT) on future Bluray (or other) publications and make an end to the infinite discussion about the definitive edition of the OT.
734	Klaus Lukaschek	Austria, Austria	December 19, 2009
735	Aleksander Kita	Malopolska, Poland	December 19, 2009
736	Emily Lapetino	IL, USA	December 19, 2009
737	Austin Prior	Dublin, Ireland	December 19, 2009	George, please think of all the fine, pioneering work in film-making arts and sciences which you and your amazingly talented team were responsible for and which thrilled audiences for so many years. Don't let them die off. Thanks for listening to us.
738	Lawrence McDonald	Ayrshire, United Kingdom	December 19, 2009
739	Ian Green	Gloucestershire, UK	December 19, 2009
740	Jesús Alfonso González Jiménez	Puebla, México	December 19, 2009	Please, let it be!
741	Jason H	OR, United States of America	December 19, 2009	Please listen to the people. We only do this because we like Star Wars.

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
741	Jason H	OR, United States of America	December 19, 2009	Please listen to the people. We only do this because we like Star Wars.
742	Tom Sitzman	MN, US	December 19, 2009	C'mon, man.
743	Lane Denson	TN, USA	December 20, 2009
744	Henri LEVANTAL	France, France	December 20, 2009	Bring back the real Star Wars!
745	Chris Eddy	CT, US	December 20, 2009
746	David Erlenbusch	British Columbia, Canada	December 20, 2009
747	Joni Orponen	Etelä-Suomi, Finland	December 20, 2009
748	Paul Allen	ME, United States	December 20, 2009
749	Rick Johnson	VA, USA	December 20, 2009	LucasFilm - I've been a fan of Star Wars since the day I saw it in 1977. Please recognize that the 'old school' fans who have supported you since opening day want the classic UNALTERED versions of these films. Refusing to do so not only DOESN'T make sense financially, but it also feels like a slap in the face to those who truly recognize the originals as the masterpieces they truly are. Thank you. Rick Johnson
750	Rob Pribish	PA, USA	December 20, 2009
751	Madison Furlong	Montana, United States	December 20, 2009	Please, please, please George. All I want for Christmas is the REAL Star Wars trilogy on dvd. I cant stand the "special edition" nonsense. I DO NOT want to see Jabba in A New Hope anymore, and I don't want to watch some cgi animated scene at Jabba's palace. Pretty Please?
752	Michael Colpitts	MA, USA	December 20, 2009
753	Carey Davis	IL, USA	December 21, 2009	I agree, I want the original 'Star Wars' (NO 'New Hope'), 'The Empire Strikes Back' and 'Return Of The Jedi' digitally re-mastered (and restored, if necessary) from the best quality 35mm prints available, with 7.1 True HD sound, director/actor commentaries (INCLUDING Harrison Ford) and HOURS of supplemental material.
754	Marissa Bale	Ontario, Canada	December 21, 2009
755	Per Hansen	Sor Trondelag, Norway	December 21, 2009
756	Jerry Smith	CFO, Russia	December 21, 2009
757	John May	Hampshire, United Kingdom	December 21, 2009
758	Ryan Neil	Illinois, USA	December 21, 2009	I would like very much to own these on Blu-ray. While I may not be a huge fan of the Special Editions, I do believe the two can coexist without one detracting from the other.
759	Rob Willenberg	WA, US	December 21, 2009
760	Robert McCarthy	TX, United States	December 21, 2009	Help me Obi-wan Kenobi, your my only hope
761	Michael Hochstedler	Georgia, United States of America	December 21, 2009
762	Yonah Paley	New Jersey, United States	December 22, 2009	Please release the original theatrical release in a restored state. It is a fantastic movie and should be see how it originally was. Also, maybe a dvd release would work for those without blu-ray. Thank You
763	steven satterwhite	al, usa	December 22, 2009	C'mon Uncle George.... it won't kill you do do just this one thing for us. After all we've put up with as fans this is a small request indeed.
764	Patrick Vogel	Ontario, Canada	December 22, 2009	Come on, we all know the special editions are a gimmick.
765	Justin Hermary	BC, Canada	December 22, 2009	I love the original and the new versions but nothing would make me happier than having

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
765	Justin Hermary	BC, Canada	December 22, 2009	I love the original and the new versions but nothing would make me happier than having both in the highest quality possible.
766	Stephan Wuethrich	zuerich / zuerich, Switzerland	December 22, 2009	please do it!
767	Manfred Kerschbaum	Austria, Austria	December 22, 2009
768	Mehboob Alam	N/A, Lancashire	December 22, 2009	It would make my son so happy.
769	michael giuffrida	ny, us	December 23, 2009	You don't go back and re-touch the Mona Lisa....
770	Joshua McFarland	Kansas, United States	December 23, 2009
771	Wesley Potter	Lancashire, England	December 23, 2009	i would love to have a proper copy of the films that i grew up with rather than the watered down editions we keep getting. Oh and BTW HAN SHOOTS FIRST!!!
772	Drew Celestino	NY, United States	December 23, 2009
773	Forrest Ruby	Colorado, USA	December 23, 2009	STOP IT GEORGE!!!! JUST PLEASE, FOR THE LOVE OF ALL THINGS GOOD, STOP!
774	Robert McQueen	WI, USA	December 23, 2009	This needs to happen! All fans kept Star Wars alive after Return of the Jedi was finished for years waiting patiently that a prequel trilogy would be made, and it was. These are the movies families grew up on, and isnt that why you left movies for awhile? To raise your family? Without fans loving your movies, Star Wars wouldnt be the Star Wars that it is today. We are owed this simple request and are tired of being slapped in the face. These are our movies as much as they are yours. Sincerely, Robert P McQueen
775	Elijah Taylor	Maryland, USA	December 23, 2009	For the love of all that is good and holy, please release these :)
776	Daniel Perales	Texas, United States of America	December 23, 2009	If the Star Trek: Original Series Blu-ray discs can have both the HD special effects and the original effects with a mono track, I know that Mr. Lucas can provide us with all versions of the Original Star Wars Trilogy.
777	Michael Coco	PA, USA	December 23, 2009
778	Robby Massey	FL, USA	December 23, 2009	I grew up on the original vhs releases and would really like to have dvd copies to replace them.
779	Jordan Kyak	Nunavut, Canada	December 23, 2009	I need a blu-ray version, I had the Original's, The Box Edition of the VHS and The dvd version of the box edition, I want to see it in it's best form.
780	Jessi Lively	MO, USA	December 24, 2009	Long Live Star Wars ! Down with CGI Jabba !
781	Eli Bildirici	NY, USA	December 24, 2009	Mr Lucas- As steward of "Star Wars", you would make an immense amount of people extremely happy were you to release in acceptable quality the original version of your films - flaws and all - on DVD, Bluray, and whatever format may succeed them. The fact is, the original pictures are a cultural icon that everyone should be able to partake in. Their success is what enabled you to become an extraordinarily successful independent filmmaker, and you owe it to the next generation of moviegoers to allow them the chance to see your movies as they were without having to resort to seeking out obscure websites or paying exorbitant sums to hunt down LaserDiscs, or eventually, the 'limited edition' DVDs released in 2006.

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
781	Eli Bildirici	NY, USA	December 24, 2009	Mr Lucas- As steward of "Star Wars", you would make an immense amount of people extremely happy were you to release in acceptable quality the original version of your films - flaws and all - on DVD, Bluray, and whatever format may succeed them. The fact is, the original pictures are a cultural icon that everyone should be able to partake in. Their success is what enabled you to become an extraordinarily successful independent filmmaker, and you owe it to the next generation of moviegoers to allow them the chance to see your movies as they were without having to resort to seeking out obscure websites or paying exorbitant sums to hunt down LaserDiscs, or eventually, the 'limited edition' DVDs released in 2006. Ultimately, as a person dedicated to film preservation and as a maverick outsider to the studio system, the person you owe a real release of the original, unaltered trilogy the most is - you. Respectfully yours, Eli Bildirici
782	Alan Swinford	TX, USA	December 24, 2009
783	Josh Lane	IL, USA	December 24, 2009
784	Kevin Harvey	IL, USA	December 24, 2009
785	Justin Palmer	IL, USA	December 24, 2009	Thank you!
786	Zachary Shotland	FL, United States	December 24, 2009
787	Chris Bernardo	IL, United States	December 24, 2009	I grew up idolizing this series and agree with EVERYTHING this petition stands for. P.S... please release the blu rays soon...
788	Ryan Gintoft	IL, USA	December 24, 2009
789	Tony Marengo	IL, USA	December 24, 2009	Do or do not, there is no try...
790	David Spicer	Cornwall, UK	December 25, 2009
791	Beans Barber	CA, 90210	December 25, 2009
792	baz mann	none, germany	December 25, 2009
793	Eric Wen	MA, USA	December 25, 2009
794	Tyler Fedchuk	BC, canada	December 25, 2009
795	Kevin Quigley	Saskatchewan, Canada	December 25, 2009
796	Blake Mertins	NE, USA	December 25, 2009
797	Tom Odson	Texas, U.S.A.	December 25, 2009
798	Elisa Ashdown	Cambridgeshire, UK	December 26, 2009	I want the original Sarlacc back!!!!
799	Michael Heilemann	NA, Denmark	December 26, 2009
800	Lasse Havelund	N/A, Denmark	December 26, 2009
801	Adam Lea	Idaho, USA	December 26, 2009
802	Chris Harrison	GA, USA	December 26, 2009	If/when this happens, I'll buy a Blu-Ray player. This platform and the fans deserve the original cuts be available for a hi-def platform. Please, Mr. Lucas, please hear our cries.
803	Brady Valentino	BC, Canada	December 26, 2009	Star Wars is the greatest piece of film that I have ever watched in my life. I'd re-buy the entire Saga if it were released in Blu-Ray. Please George, please!
804	Nathan Fitzsimmons	WY, USA	December 26, 2009	Please, I beg of you.
805	Jason Benway	MI, United States	December 26, 2009
806	Thomas Mertz	Viborg, Denmark	December 26, 2009

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
806	Thomas Mertz	Viborg, Denmark	December 26, 2009
807	Matt Bertolini	NJ, USA	December 26, 2009
808	Mike Wytrykus	IN, United States	December 27, 2009	Nothing would make me happier than a hi-def release of the original theatrical versions of the Star Wars trilogy.
809	Melanie Moore	HK, Hong Kong	December 27, 2009
810	Caesar Guerra	IL, USA	December 27, 2009	Hayden has no place in Jedi!
811	Todd Drew	MO, USA	December 27, 2009
812	Samuel Hawkins	WA, USA	December 27, 2009	If it's a question of money, name your price, good sir.
813	Minerva Kowalskii	Carryduff, Northern Ireland	December 27, 2009	GEORGE ,WHY DO WE HAVE TO FIGHT TO GET THE THREE MOVIES WE ALL LOVE ?.All versions of the Star Wars trilogy can happily co exist with each other, PLEASE give us the Original trilogy as it was first seen in cinemas. Give the world Star Wars in a quality that it deserves =remastered in 1080p.
814	Jefferson Fetters	WA, United States	December 27, 2009	I saw "Empire" in the theater (I was only 3) and it scared the hell of me. That experience has always stayed with me. Fairy tales used to frighten children (and they were meant to). James Cameron has released "T2" on DVD 3 times and 2 times on Blu-ray Disc. Each version was a little more "tweaked" than the last (but the original version was always included). We bought all of those, too. We (the "Fans") would gladly purchase every new "enhanced" version of your films on endless formats (with new scenes and better audio/video quality) without complaint as long as the original versions were included (restored and in the best possible quality). Please release your original movies on Blu-ray with the best possible picture and sound ("1080p" and "DTS-HD Master Audio"). We will buy them.
815	Chuck Toporek	MA, USA	December 27, 2009
816	Nikolaj Rasmussen	Europe, Denmark	December 27, 2009	just do it, please...
817	Per Boman	Stockholm, Sweden	December 27, 2009
818	Tomas Dahlgren	Norsborg, Sweden	December 27, 2009	Love your stuff, George. You can always make improvements to your films, but please, make sure the originals are safely preserved original.
819	Paulo Richards	Santiago, Chile	December 27, 2009
820	Tyler Hapgood	ca, usa	December 28, 2009
821	Brandon Tebedo	IL, USA	December 28, 2009
822	Joaquin Chavez	New Mexico, United States	December 28, 2009
823	Ryan Bram	Arizona, United States of America	December 28, 2009
824	Christine Zartman	Co, 80120	December 28, 2009
825	Josh Elwood	Iowa, United States	December 28, 2009
826	Jonathan Head	NSW, Australia	December 28, 2009
827	Rodney Clenney	Oklahoma, USA	December 28, 2009
828	Antoni Grier	Girona, Spain	December 28, 2009
829	Bryan Sandler	Florida, US	December 28, 2009
830	georg syphers	Maine, United States of America	December 28, 2009	I have been watching the original star wars trilogy (IV-VI) since as far back as I can remember. Mr. Lucas please, search your

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
830	georg syphers	Maine, United States of America	December 28, 2009	I have been watching the original star wars trilogy (IV-VI) since as far back as I can remember, Mr. Lucas please, search your feelings, you know han solo shot first, and that there is no place for boogie woogie in Jabba's palace. Please I want my children to grow up watching a timeless story with great characters and serious moral dilemmas, not more eye candy.
831	Charles Gibson	LA, USA	December 28, 2009
832	Matt Cicalese	PA, USA	December 29, 2009
833	James Gonzales	California, USA	December 29, 2009	Please, with all due consideration, release the Original Theatrical cuts within the release of any subsequent future Blu-Ray offering (i.e. Blade Runner, Close Encounters ect.)
834	Mark Spano	NY, USA	December 29, 2009
835	Steven Painter	N/A, Taiwan	December 29, 2009
836	Jesse Hefford	Queensland, Australia	December 29, 2009	Please release these original versions alongside a new special edition on Blu-ray. These would be greatly appreciated, I have never even seen the proper original versions and it would absolutely make my 2010 to have these in high-def to watch over and over.
837	Brett Mangan	IA, USA	December 29, 2009
838	russell headridge	vestfold, norway!!esb	December 29, 2009
839	Rob McKenzie	WA, USA	December 29, 2009
840	John Pannozzi	Rhode Island, United States	December 29, 2009	Give us both the original and special edition verisons of Star Wars episodes IV-VI on Blu-ray in 1080p and I'll be very satisfied.
841	Joshua Luna	IL, USA	December 30, 2009
842	Michael Alan	CA, 94086	December 30, 2009	The ORIGINAL theatrical versions on the ones that made an impact on our culture and helped changed the face of movies. For that, they should be preserved on home video rather than being "rewritten" by only allowing the altered-years-later versions available.
843	Tom Scott-Toft	North Shore, New Zealand	December 30, 2009
844	Colin Smith	California, United States	December 30, 2009
845	Chris Stevens	Ilfov, Romania	December 30, 2009
846	David Boyd	VA, USA	December 30, 2009
847	Brad Quigley	IL, USA	December 30, 2009	Preserve film history and put the original versions (properly restored too!) on Blu-ray!
848	Evann Perry	Maine, United States	December 30, 2009
849	Steven Baik	CA, United States of America	December 30, 2009
850	Aaron Long	Ontario, Canada	December 30, 2009
851	Matthew Macalister	BC, Canada	December 31, 2009
852	Mark Reynolds	TX, USA	December 31, 2009
853	austin overbey	north carolina, united states	December 31, 2009
854	jordan jennings	UT, USA	December 31, 2009	This would be fantastic! Please give back to the fans that's have made Star Wars what it is today!
855	Jeremy Goss	TX, USA	December 31, 2009
856	David de Oliveira Lima	São Paulo, Brazil	December 31, 2009	Please, don't erase such wonderful memory from my childhood. Give us the Theatrical Cuts! David
857	Kelly Hartman	PA, USA	December 31, 2009	I fondly remember watching these original

Number	Name	Location	Signature Date	Comments
857	Kelly Hartman	PA, USA	December 31, 2009	I fondly remember watching these original versions, and one of my favorite scenes was the original entertainment in Jabba's palace. I would enjoy seeing this in high definition.
858	(deleted)		December 31, 2009
859	Michael Banks	CA, U.S.A.	December 31, 2009
860	Douglas Theye-Ace	PA, USA	December 31, 2009
861	Tracey Walker	WV, USA	December 31, 2009	one of my earliest memories is of watching A New Hope. I will never forget the wonder and joy of seeing Luke blow the Death Star into smithereens. These films changed my life, and they did it all without the ridiculous over-CGI'd filler. Give me the terrible effects and the obvious models. They were cutting edge for the time. Some things look better when touched up a bit, but changing an entire sequence for the sake of showing off how good your CGI department is will not add anything to the story. Constantly re-doing something for the sake of re-doing it is not progress; it is beating a dead horse. Let the trilogy stand for itself, and stop with the ridiculous distractions.
862	Jesus Ramos	Madrid, Spain	December 31, 2009	It would also be good if he could redo the new trilogy, it is no secret that fans find it... disturbing. But I know that's too much to ask.
863	Federico Porreca	Milan, Italy	December 31, 2009
864	Ryan Birdsall	CA, USA	December 31, 2009	I would really like to enjoy Star Wars as I knew it when I was a kid, without all the forced CGI additions and inexplicably altered dialog (such as "it's all right I can see a lot better now!"). The originals were perfect the way they were!
865	Daniel Brown	KS, United States	December 31, 2009
866	Mike Cromwell	Massachusetts, United States	December 31, 2009
867	Timothy Burlingame	PA, USA	January 1, 2010
868	Ed Blackburn	Midlothian, Scotland	January 1, 2010
869	(deleted)	england, uk	January 1, 2010
870	Graham Revell	Suffolk, England	January 1, 2010
871	John LeGate	WA, United States	January 2, 2010
872	Brendan Jones	NJ, USA	January 2, 2010
873	German Nuñez Lopez	Valencia, Spain	January 2, 2010	Plus to fans best remeberances about of the classic trilogy the original films were a big hit in cinema history and must be preserver in their original form, just how every other great film.
874	Adam Small	CA, United States	January 2, 2010
875	Jeff Harrison	ON, Canada	January 2, 2010
876	Tuomas Isola	Uusimaa, Finland	January 2, 2010
877	Dean Broughton	N/A, United kingdom	January 2, 2010	I grew up with the original Star Wars films, and they are reminders of a fun childhood. I liked some of the changes made to the previous dvd edition, but the fans should a least have a choice of which version to watch. These films have powerful nostalgia for people like myself. Release the original Trilogy on blu-ray!!
878	Greg Bishansky	New York, United States	January 2, 2010	