

A Message from a Maker of Films.

To fulfill the Adult Education and Research Expansion Pack, who's video search component will hopefully go fully functional and available online in the near future. The enclosed presentation showcases how the search system can help inform those who want to be more informed.

Using 'Star Wars' as the main search query, and probing the depths of media released around the release of Revenge of the Sith, this presentation investigates societal themes and memes which surfaced in the media representation of the Star Wars phenomenon.

Please rate the coincidence factor, that the May 19, 2005 installation of John C. Richter as Acting Assistant Attorney General Criminal Division of the U.S. Department of Justice as a precursor to the May 26, 2005 Operation D-Elite takedown of Elite Torrents, because of the leak online of 'Revenge of the Sith':

No coincidence  Semi-coincidental  Very coincidental

Please rate John C. Richter's May 19, 2005 Summit of Pornography: Obscenity Enforcement, Corporate Participation, and Violence Against Women and Children:

Not successful  Adequately Successful  Very Successful

Please rate Homeland Security and Immigration and Customs Enforcement's policy initiatives to prosecute and jail U.S. citizens because of internet communications:

Not successful  Adequately Successful  Very Successful

Please rate the FBI's Cyber Division's prosecution of the 'Revenge of the Sith' leak case:

Not successful  Adequately Successful  Very Successful

Was the sentencing (jail time, home detention and fines) of the 'Revenge of the Sith' leakers:

Lenient  Appropriate  Severe

Should Lucasfilm Ltd. have carried out prosecution against the 'Revenge of the Sith' leakers instead of the U.S. Government? Yes  No
