

Comprehensive Notes

The purpose of this detailed itinerary and the accompanying notes isn't just to tell you what the schedule is, but to give you enough information to set your expectations of things like traffic, walking time, how early to show up, etc., so that may help you have a more informed (and hence relaxed and enjoyable time.)

All listed times are LOCAL times, although during this time of the year their PDT and our MST are the same.

Thursday, June 14th, 2007

1040 Go to Southwest.com and do online checkin for confirmation code CMJLF8 and flight 3279 for both Scott and Erin
PRINT BOARDING PASSES. If you can't -- don't worry, you're still in the "A" group. When you get to the airport any automated kiosk in front of the Southwest counter will reprint those same boarding passes.

Friday, June 15th, 2007

0940 Show up at the Tucson Airport ready to enjoy DHS/TSA

1010 Stand in the A line for SW 3279

1040 SW 3279 leaves TUS

1155 SW 3279 arrives LAS (no time change)

1156 Exit the plane, and follow directions to baggage claim. (You will board a shuttle which will take you to the main terminal. You will then exit the shuttle, descend the escalator. DO GO THROUGH BAGGAGE CLAIM. Do not exit the side doors. )

1200 Be on the lookout for a guy in a suit with your name on a card. This is your sedan driver. He will take you to your hotel.

1230 Check in at Planet Hollywood Hotel and Casino. Conf code LHQQN. All they really want you to do is walk up, put your ID on the counter and say "Harvanek" and perhaps spell it.

YOU DO NOT NEED TO SHOW A CREDIT CARD AT CHECKIN. Your room and your incidentals are taken care of. They will ask for a picture ID. Driver's license is preferred and only Scott will need to show his.

1300 You are free to explore the Hotel, Casino, and the attached huge upper-end mall complex.

The Paris and Bally's hotels are next door and within five minutes walking distance. Caesar's Palace appears close but you'll note it's 10-15 minutes walk. Use the overhead walkway to cross the
