

street ("Las Vegas Blvd" also known as "The Strip").

Good restaurant in Planet Hollywood is Elements, formerly my top pick, now my 2nd pick. Their "Spice Market Buffet" is pricy, but easily the best buffet ever.

Napoleon's cigar bar in the Paris hotel has music in the afternoon... and free roast beef sandwiches during happy hour (1600-1800). Note: free means "free if you're drinking"

I would not recommend the Eiffel Tower restaurant, although if the tower is open, going up IS worth your time :)

2120 Make your way to the theater where magician Hans Klok and his assistant Pamela Anderson (yes, THAT Pamela Anderson) will be performing. At any time you can ask any casino employee for directions. It's VERY easy to get lost so if you ask at every corner you'll get there quicker

2130 Your package included a set of tickets. This is a good time to use them to get in. Your confirmation code 39-14583

2200 The magic show starts

1555 Go to Southwest.com, and check into flight 882 using same confirmation code CMJLF8. If you have no laptops or Internet Access, please call me and I'll do it.

1830 Go downstairs, get a cab, and tell him to take you to the Venetian.

1840 Once inside the main doors of the Venetian head to the RIGHT past the front desk and enter the hallway. There is an elevator to take you to the top. Follow signs to "Bouchon".

1900 You have a table for two reserved in Scott's name. The meal and gratuity are covered in full. Please enjoy. May I recommend a bottle of wine with dinner. Their list has some good ones $60-$100 range. Their foie gras is good as are their steaks, osso bucco or short ribs if they have them that day are falling-off-the-bone good.

1350 Check out using the television menu. Don't even TRY to go do this at the lobby -- you'll be there forever.

1352 Head down to the Lobby

1400 Look for a CLS limousine. The driver will be waiting for you.
