

PAWPCC07
(02/2007)

Hardware/Software Requiring Advanced Approval

The following is a list of items you may not possess or use without advanced written permission:¹

- Any encryption or steganography or similar software/hardware
- Any monitoring or similar software/hardware
- Any anti-monitoring or similar software/hardware
- Any password cracking utilities
- Any wiping/erasing or similar utilities
- Any file sharing programs (Morpheus, Aimster, Audiogalaxy, BearShare, KaZa, LimeWire, and Mactella, etc.)
- Virus, worms, Trojan horse, logic bombs, sniffer programs, or any other similar programs
- Any pirated software (software for which you do not have a license for, which is not shareware or freeware)
- Any software, hardware, and/or website that can be used to spoof, conceal and/or hide your identity.
- OTHER (Defined)

I have been advised that I may not use or possess the above items without prior written approval of the U.S. Probation Office. I understand that I must ask my probation officer immediately if I have any questions about this restriction.

Scott McCausland
Name Printed

9/5/07
Date

Scott McCausland
Signature

¹At times vendors may include software/hardware that is problematic for your success in the Computer Restriction and Monitoring Program. Although these items may legitimately be a built in feature, you may not use them without advanced written permission.