To Whom Ever It May Concern;

Mr. Grant Stanley is currently employed and works in the technical support group assigned to my position. His record with our company is relatively flawless, as he maintains excellent punctuality, work ethic, and adherence to company policy. In his two years with our company he has worked hard to achieve all goals presented to him and continues to exceed my expectations and indeed the expectations of our department.

He has achieved all promotions offered to him and is currently in line for a Senior Technician position. If something were to arise that would cause Mr. Stanley to leave our company his absence would be detrimental.

Sincerely,

United States District Court:
United States Probation Office:

This is a letter of recommendation for Grant Tyler Stanley; of Wise Virginia. I have known Mr. Stanley all of his life. My acquaintance with him is through his family. I have personally known the Stanley family for approximately 22 years.

I have found Mr. Stanley to be of high moral character, conscientious, hard working, and most of all, a very good person. Grant has gained the respect of all who know him. From knowing this family, I know that Grant was raised in a responsible home environment. He has demonstrated to me that he is dedicated to hard work and has the ability to be a very productive citizen in his community.

His professional attitude, honesty and dedication would certainly be an asset to any community. I know in my heart that Grant is a very intelligent and remarkable young man.

I am aware of Grants current situation with the Federal charges of copyright violations. However, it is my professional law enforcement opinion that Grant would pose no threat or danger to the public or any individual. I am confident that this will be Grants first and last experience as a defendant in our criminal justice system.

If I can be of any further assistance, please feel free to call. I would welcome to the opportunity to be of service.

Sincerely,

Tony Bates
Chief of Police

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a letter of personal reference for Mr. Grant Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny K. Stanley of Pound, Virginia. I have been the Chief of Police for the Town of Pound for over 20 years and have always known the Stanley family to be a hard working, honorable and community-oriented family. Grant is their only child and I have known him since he was born. When serving with Mr. Danny Stanley in a professional situation, (he served on the Pound Town Council for several years) I became more closely acquainted with both his wife and his son, Grant.

While growing up in Pound, Grant was an outstanding young man. He was an excellent student while in school and was never a problem there or in the community. After becoming old enough to obtain a driver's license and operate a vehicle, my department in no way received a complaint about Grant. As far as I know, he has always been an honest, dependable and law-abiding citizen.

Sincerely,

Jeff Rose
Chief of Police

RE: Grant Stanley

To Whom It May Concern:

The intention of this letter is to provide my personal characterization of Grant Stanley in hopes that the Court may provide some leniency in the pending litigation.

I have known Grant all of his life, in Church and in the Community. I also have known Grant Stanley through the association with his father, whom I have worked with for 27 years.

Grant Stanley is, and has always been, grounded in a family structure that is consistently stable and solid. Grant has been taught what is right and what is wrong. Grant has also been taught to be accountable for his actions. I believe from talking to Grant that he understands his situation and is remorseful for any wrongdoing.

On behalf of his family, I respectfully and humbly ask for the Court's leniency in Grant Stanley's case.
